Allot Tax Dollars For Better Streets

The Editor's column

by STUART R. PADDOCK

The taxpayer, instead of grumbling about the increase in the tax bill he will receive next week, should remember that the dollar going to the taxing bodies has shrunk a lot the last few years. It takes more of them to pay teachers' salaries and municipal costs.

Taxpayers who are earning bigger salaries than in former years, should not grumble. Instead they should extend their sympathy to the few whose income has not kept pace with living and tax costs.

We never knew until recently the great number of persons who write letters to law makers. We admit we have been rather negligent in telling our lawmakers how we want them to vote.

Instead we have depended upon their soundness of judgment to vote right. We now learn that lawmakers are happy to get letters from their constituents.

It is true we have always thought that those in high income tax brackets deserve our sympathy.

Instead, the higher that tax, the greater is the charge that is passed back upon the average citizen who buys the products, the sale of which enables the corporation to pay that tax.

It is the average citizen who really foots the bill that Uncle Sam charges the corporation.

Sniping at local governments in Cook county will never cease, and metropolitan area residents cannot afford to drop their guard or be apathetic if they desire to keep their government units under close control.

Again, the state legislature will be asked this year to do away with township collectors and assessors in Cook county.

One or more taxpayer groups who know little about the services to the local communities that the assessor and tax collector provide, will lobby for a bill or bills aimed at abolishing those 2 township offices.

The local assessor is the only person that local property owners have to fight their battles in the office of the county assessor.

The local tax collector is "the banker" who distributes early tax monies to our financially pressed school districts and other tax units.

The tax groups cannot correctly claim that elimination of those offices will cut taxes. Instead, elimination of those offices will increase taxes.

There is a 2 per cent collection charge, regardless, where the property owner pays his taxes—in Chicago or at home.

The local collectors in recent years have turned over a sufficient amount of excess commissions to the township fund, eliminate the need for a town tax.

The local collectors by personal contact with large corporations, insurance companies and home mortgage firms, are able to collect; directly thousands of dollars, (which in turn, mean early relief for local taxing bodies).

Money paid to the county often means a delay of several months before it will be released to the taxing bodies.

The increase in school taxes has materially increased our tax bills this year and we should not allow a Chicago group, under the guise of tax machinery simplification, to build a dam that will pile up our tax dollars in some Chicago banks that should be allowed to flow quickly into the coffers of local taxing bodies.

Schools and villages usually operate towards the end of the fiscal year with funds borrowed on tax anticipation warrants. The sooner these warrants can be paid off, the smaller the amount of interest charges.

While eating recently in the dining room of the House of Representatives, we found that the back page of the menu extolled the virtues of the bean soup.

Congress has decreed that bean soup must be available to congressmen every day in the year.

It has been there 25 years, ever since the late Uncle Joe Cannon got mad when he asked for bean soup on one of the hottest days, and was told by a waiter "We don't serve it on warm days."

His anger extended to the legislative room, where a bean soup resolution was immediately passed and bean soup is destined to stay with our congressmen as long as congressmen are there to eat it.

By the way, we tried the bean soup and found it very good.

The bus service between Hoffman Estates and Palatine is hanging in the balance. A news story in this issue states that service is being continued by a subsidy of developers of Hoffman Estates.

Would it be to the interest of Palatine businessmen to participate in that subsidy? Otherwise, bus service that encourages residents to trade in Palatine may end. It is worth an investigation by the businessmen.

OH CHARLIE, this is the weekend! cries Mary Tindall to star Robert Hawley, shown here in rehearsal for Village Theatre's production of the adult farce, "The Tender Trap." The comedy opens in Arlington high school Little Theatre and continues through Saturday night. Tickets for tonight and Friday will be available at the door. Saturday is sold out.

Downtown Lights, Widening Slated

The village of Arlington Heights will dip into motor fuel tax and half-cent sales tax returns to the extent of about $400,000 to cover its share of the current downtown street widening and lighting programs.

The money would be paid out over a 10-year period, from funds now accumulating at the rate of $96,000 a year.

This was disclosed in a report by Trustee Robert B. Bishop at a Tuesday board meeting. The board then accepted his report and indicated general concurrence with its proposal.

The village portion would be less than half of the total cost, estimated at about $820,000, exclusive of the cost of interest on bonds. Actually, Bishop claimed, the village would lay out $40,000 over the 10 years to retire a bond issue of less than $300,000.

The remainder of the total would be paid by property owners who will contribute under special assessment procedures. Only 1 project, new lighting and widening of Sigwalt st. to cost an estimated $87,000, will be fully financed with village funds, probably MFT revenues.

AN APPROXIMATE cost breakdown of the total:north side widening, $284,000; south side widening, $138,000; lighting, $310,000, and Sigwalt st., lighting and widening, $87,000.

The report recommended that the village pay about half the total cost on lighting and one-third the total on widening. The village share will vary on individual assessments, however, as an assessment "spreader" will determine assessments. He will take into account the financial benefit to each parcel of property.

The public hearing on the lighting project will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

Outline Plans

A revised street lighting plan, altered to provide better illumination of downtown Arlington Heights streets, was outlined before the village board Tuesday.

ORIGINALLY lighting standards were to be erected on one side of the street only. The new design calls for the same number of lights staggered on both sides. The latter method was adopted on the Dunton and Campbell street lighting project of several years.

However, on several avenues where staggered lighting would be impracticable because of the cost or narrowness of existing or proposed sidewalks, the one-side plan will remain in effect.

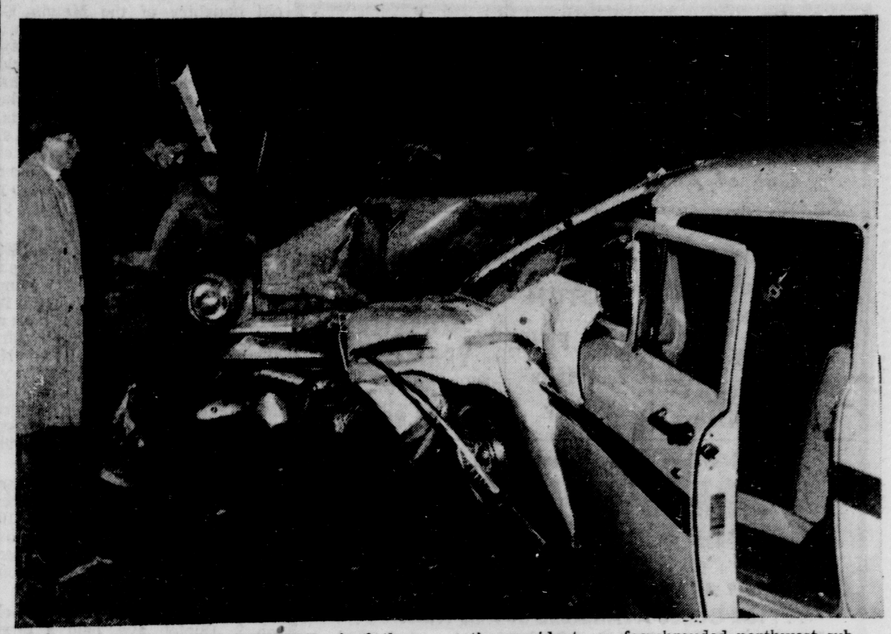
FOR EXAMPLE, because sidewalks on the north side of Northwest highway, between Pine and Vail, are only 5 feet wide, standards along the walk are not feasible, according to F. R. Buechner, village manager.

The same applies to the north side of Sigwalt st., to be widened in the not-too-distant future.

In order to offset the cost of laying lighting cable on both sides of the street, a special committee recently deleted several streets from the lighting program as first set up.

These included N. State rd., between Euclid ave. and Eastman st., N. Dunton ave. north of St. James st. and S. Highland ave.

Friendly Warning Fails...



SIX PERSONS WERE INJURED, 4 of them seriously, in this 2-car smashup at Dundee rd. and Arlington Heights rd. Thursday evening. In other accidents on fog-shrouded northwest suburban highways that evening, 1 person was killed and 5 injured.

Woman Dies, 11 Hurt On Fog-Bound Roads Thursday

Fog was crowding down Thursday evening as Elmer Sass hurried to set out his oil road lamps along Arlington Heights rd., at its intersection with Dundee rd.

Sass didn't complete the task in time.

A car approached fast along Arlington Heights rd., apparently failed to see the stop sign at Dundee rd. The car went into the intersection, turned to avoid the sign on the north bank and slammed head-on into a car heading west along Dundee rd.

POLICE SAID the northbound auto was driven by Mrs. Dorothy E. Roxworthy, 29, of 426 Creekwood dr., Barrington Woods. She was hospitalized with severe facial cuts and internal injuries. Her 2 children, Rickie, 2, and Jimmy, 5, were treated for head cuts and later released.

A fourth person, Miss Patricia Roxworthy, 17, of West County Line rd., a sister-in-law, received facial cuts, a broken ankle and internal injuries.

Both persons in the other auto were seriously hurt. They were Willard Smith of Cary, a broken leg, facial cuts and internal injuries, and his wife Virginia, 2 broken legs, facial cuts and internal injuries.

The 4 adults were still in Resurrection hospital Tuesday.

SASS' WIFE said the accidents at the dangerous corner have been many during the past months.

"Every time there is a fog, some one gets hurt there," she remarked.

It got so bad her husband took to putting out the lamps to warn northbound motorists to stop for the heavy Dundee rd. through traffic. That's what he was doing about 7 p.m. Thursday.

"I'm getting to be a nervous wreck," said the woman, whose home is at the southwest corner. Once, she recalled, the injured were brought into her kitchen until an ambulance arrived.

What can be done about the carnage?

DANGEROUS meeting of Dundee and Arlington Heights rds. is lighted on foggy nights by oil lamps set out by friendly Elmer Sass.

Mrs. Sass says the state so far has only moved its sign away from the dead-center target area — because drivers were knocking it down too often.

She would like a larger stop sign erected, preferably a red flasher light for the Arlington Heights rd. traffic.

"Do you suppose we'll get one?" she wonders.

A HALF-MILE west along Dundee rd., a car ran off the road and struck a culvert, sending all 3 occupants to St. Joseph hospital in Elgin. Injured in the 10:30 p.m. accident were driver Vincent Valiquet, Gary Anderson and John Hill, all of Chicago.

An automobile crash in dense fog Thursday claimed the life of Mrs. Tillie Kokalus, 57, of 332 N. Milwaukee ave., Wheeling.

A passenger in a car driven by her husband Andrew, 58, Mrs. Kokalus was killed when the car struck another at the intersection of Wolf and Foundry rds., east of Arlington Heights.

Police said the Kokalus car was traveling north on Wolf, a through street, when it struck car driven by Anthony M. Liotta, 31, of 3502 Thrush ave., Rolling Meadows.

LIOTTA told police he stopped at the intersetcion, where visibility was only a few feet, then drove into the intersection where the crash occurred.

Both drivers were taken to Resurrection hospital.

An inquest into the death of Mrs. Kokalus has been continued until May pending release of the drivers from the hospital.

Mrs. Kokalus is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Charles Boettcher of Wheeling.

Arrest Driver In Wreck

An Arlington Heights motorist was cited for failure to yield right of way after a 2-car collision at Forrest and Euclid aves. Sunday morning.

Norman A. Nebel, 35, of 316 N. Belmont, was the driver who received a ticket. Police measured skid marks of 90 ft. made by Nebel's auto westbound on Euclid ave., and said that he entered the intersection after the eastbound auto had already begun to turn left onto Forrest ave.

DRIVER OF the other car was Casimir S. Kostulaki, 66, of Warrenville. Although both cars were badly damaged, neither driver was injured.

Despite numerous accidents in the rural area on fogbound highways, village drivers apparently were extra cautious both Thursday and Monday nights. Two minor accidents were reported Monday but both occurred before the onset of the fog. Village streets were accident-free Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

There's A Ford In Your Future

Within a few weeks, Arlington Heights' 4 Chevrolet police cars will be replaced with Fords.

The switchover was approved by village board Tuesday night after consideration of 2 bids submitted by local dealers. The Ford dealer sent in a bid of $210 a month, including furnishing of gasoline, for either a patrol car or station wagon. It was $10 a month less than the other bid.

The village is expected to start purchase of gasoline in bulk quantities after completion of a municipal garage later this year.

County Zoners Set 6 Hearings

County zoning board of appeals will hear petitions Thursday on 6 requests for rezoning in Wheeling and Palatine townships.

Two hearings are slated for 5 p.m. in Palatine village hall, and 4 for Arlington Heights village hall at 8 p.m.

Three petitions concern 3 parcels of land owned by Arthur O. Pape, 259 W. Palatine rd., Arlington Heights, who is requesting a zone change from farming to B-1 business.

The parcels, totaling approximately 8 acres, are located north of Palatine rd., west of Arlington Heights rd., and include the building formerly used by Pape and Son Garden center, now defunct.

Pape's lawyer, Loman D. Eley, 10 S. LaSalle st., Chicago, said Tuesday that his client wanted to sell the acreage, including the present building. The adjoining frontage would be used commercially, and the rear of the property reportedly is to be used by Tinsley Bus Service for garage, repair shop, and open air storage of school buses.

Tinsley, now located 5 miles west of the Pape property, has been given 5 years to move from his present location because county zoners found that site a "non-conforming" use.

THE FOURTH Wheeling township petition concerns approximately 10 acres on Palatine rd. across from Palwaukee airport, near Wolf rd.

Owner of the acreage, Robert J. Doestch of Evanston, is asking a change from farming to I-1 light industry to permit erection of an office and shop for his Doestch Bros. excavating business.

IN PALATINE township, Mrs. Hattie Hasterock of Milwaukee ave., Wheeling, is requesting a rezoning of three-quarters of an acre at the intersection of Rand and Hicks rds. She seeks a change to B-1 business to permit erection of a gas station.

The other Palatine township hearing concerns three-quarters of an acre at Rand and Lake-Cook rds., now zoned for farming and requested for B-1 business.

Trustees Nix 100 Dwellings

Arlington Heights village board Tuesday backed up the decision of the village zoning board of appeals in rejecting to permit construction of 100 apartments in Arlingdale.

At an earlier March 18 hearing Leonard L. Roesler, 1110 W. Euclid, had outlined plans to erect 20 buildings containing 100 1-2 and 3 bedroom apartments. He owns 5½ acres on the north side of Euclid ave., roughly bounded by Harvard ave. and the Chicago and North Western railway tracks.

Many of the more than 50 persons at that hearing objected to rezoning, terming it a safety hazard and detrimental to property values.

A HEARING on petitions to rezone property adjacent on the east for multiple dwelling and commercial use was originally scheduled for 7:30 p.m. next Monday evening.

The hearing has been called off, zoning board chairman Vic Beisler said Wednesday. It will be rescheduled, as will other pending zoning matters, after appointment of 3 new board members early in May.

This property is partly owned by Roesler, partly by Arthur F. Thiersch, 1108 W. Euclid. It includes lot 91 and most of the land down to the point where Euclid crosses the tracks.

Hatlen Hassle Near Solution?

A subdivider's difficulties with the village of Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect over the question of assistance to schools may nearly be over.

The builder is Rolf J. Hatlen, developer of Hatlen Heights and Hatlen Heights Estates, a large project between the 2 towns and south of Central rd.

Last year both sides threatened court action after Hatlen went ahead on construction without approval of the villages and also without meeting their requirements of a land donation for schools. Hatlen gave in, promised land for schools.

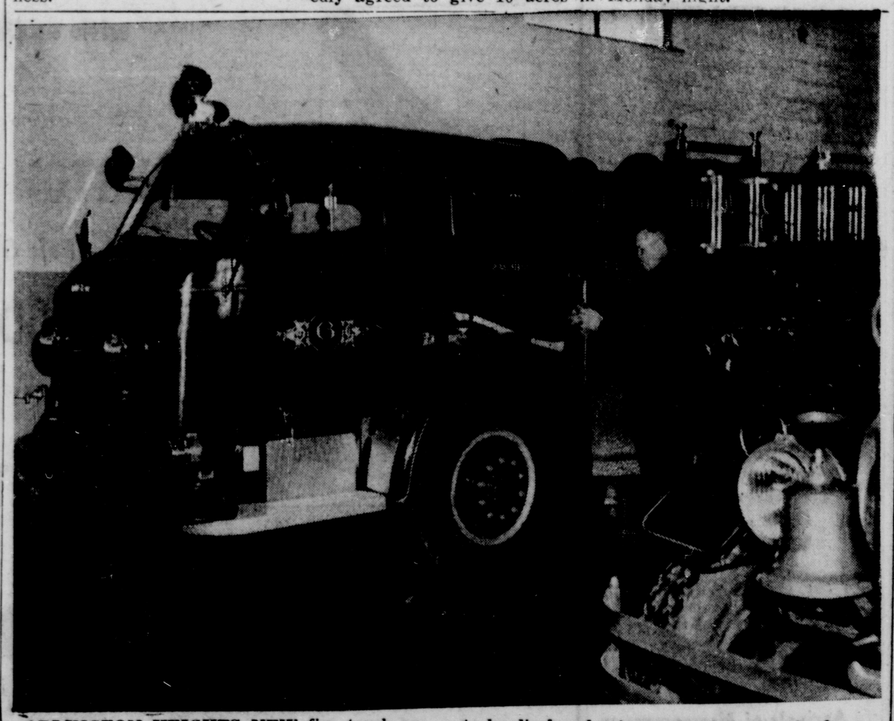
NOW THE builder has reportedly agreed to give 10 acres in Forest View school district for a school. However the Mt. Prospect district, where Hatlen first built homes, has a claim on a portion of this site.

Hatlen is also reportedly willing to throw $15,000 worth of site improvements and $50,000 worth of classrooms in on the deal.

He was to seek approval on his latest plat from the Arlington Heights plan commission Monday night.



ARLINGTON HEIGHTS NEW fire truck received a coating of wax this week in preparation for Sunday's dedication and open house at the north side fire station. Fireman Floyd Dobbins is one of several volunteers who this week are polishing up new and old equipment to be displayed. A parade of fire trucks from the village hall up State rd. to the station will precede the 3 p. m. dedication. The public is invited to the events in the station at N. State and Hawthorne sts.

Rash Of Pranks Plagued Police

Arlington Heights police answered a number of complaints coming under the "boys-will-be-boys" category last week, hardly surprising for a vacation week.

One pair of youngsters was "apprehended" while shooting up the west side of town, out near the school under construction in Westgate.

Their weapons — a pellet gun and a BB gun. One of them had shot another boy's arrow. They were asked to bring their parents to the station with them.

THERE WERE also boys in another neighborhood creating a fuss, said the complainer, with their bow and arrow while elsewhere two 3-year-old buddies went for a walk and weren't rounded up for an hour.

Another boy, taking advantage of the warm day, took to climbing trees and, in a manner anything but boylike, became stuck up there.

One carefree but unlucky 13-year-old was thrown by his bicycle while riding north on Chestnut and laid on the ground in the parkway until an ambulance arrived. He suffered no more than a badly pulled muscle.

AS FOR OLDER boys, a group of them hauled a movable basketball stand from the playground at Ridge school into an empty lot across the street, apparently for no particular reason.

Police were having their usual complaints about the older generation too. A pair of drunks, refused a drink at a highway bar, stalked out. One of them wheeled and gave vent to his disgust by pushing his fist through a window. He then drove away, cut hand and all.

Ladies Win Control Of Library Board

An official tally of last week's election returns shows that Mrs. N. Belmont, and Mrs. Willis M. Hubbard, 525 Bristol, were elected to the board of directors of the Arlington Heights public library.

The tally gave Mrs. Hendrickson 2,002 votes, Mrs. Hubbard, 1,955 votes and loser Robert R. Blackburn, 1,004, Watling, 1,922 votes. In the unofficial tabulation printed last week it was incorrectly stated that Mrs. Hendrickson and Blackburn were elected.

Where To Pay Your Township Taxes?

Palatine township collector George W. Howes will collect taxes at the LaLonde real estate office, 3. N. Bothwell, Palatine, beginning next week.

Wheeling township collector William Annen said arrangements are not completed for collection of taxes but date and place of payment will be announced shortly.

A NUMBER of local residents have already received tax bills.

Howes' office will be open from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. weekdays except Wednesday afternoon. First installment payments are to be made by May 30.

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

The advent of the Easter season heightened the social picture in Arlington Heights with many family gatherings during the weekend, as well as a large amount of spring vacation traveling. Among those out-of-town for Easter were Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cournoyer, 1206 N. Harvard ave., and children, Steven, Ann and Billy, who returned here Monday from a week in Chippewa Falls, Wis., where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stafford.

Also returning Monday from an Easter trip were Mrs. George Poole and daughter, Georgene, E. Euclid ave., who spent 5 days in Detroit where they were guests at the home of Mrs. Poole's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edward Toole.

During Easter-Time

Mrs. William E. Trude Sr., 501 W. Euclid, returned before Palm Sunday from a 3-week vacation to Miami Beach, New Orleans and Nassau, in the Bahamas, where she was a guest at the Emerald Beach hotel. Accompanying her were Mrs. Ethel Bowers of Delevan, Wis., Mrs. Sigrid Abel of Williams Bay, Wis. and Mrs. Dagmar Christensen of Crystal Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Trude and children, Joan and Billy, 801 S. Dunton ave., accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Trude Sr., spent Easter week in Washington, D. C. and the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia.

Easter in South

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Traver and children, Frank, Douglas, Tim and Cindy, 717 S. Chestnut ave., returned Sunday from a week in Florida during which they toured the state and spent several days in Jacksonville with Mr. and Mrs. John Lawlor, former local residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Webster, 834 N. Princeton ave., have just completed a 2-week spring vacation during which they stayed at Indian Rocks, Fla.

In California

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. Wessner and children, Barbara and David, 38 S. Ridge ave., returned to their home recently from a week's plane trip to Whittier, Cal., where they were guests at the home of the former's brother and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Wessner.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Wheeler and family, 406 W. Kirchhoff, arrived here Saturday after completing a 10-day California trip. Their stops included San Francisco, Disneyland and the Grand Canyon.

In Ohio, New Jersey

Mrs. Henry V. Moore and son, John, 1303 Watling, arrived here Easter Sunday from a week in Ohio where they were guests at the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Erskine.

Mrs. Hugh W. Gillon, 410 S. Dunton ave., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. James, returned Sunday from a 3-day trip to Butler, Pa., where they were entertained at the home of Mr. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard James.

Mrs. Walter M. Dill, 526 S. Evergreen ave., returned here Friday from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Townsend Allen of Camden, N. J. where she was called because of the illness of her father.

In Wisconsin, Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Tamulis and children, Mary Kay, Joseph and Bill, 202 W. South st., spent Easter weekend in Pardeville, Wis. where they were guests at the home of Mr. Tamulis' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tarrant.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCormick, 844 S. Vail ave., and children, Pat and Judy, were in Milwaukee for the Easter weekend where they were guests at the home of the latter's father, William R. Callahan.

Also In North

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Larson and children, Dick and Carol, 733 S. Highland ave., returned here Sunday evening from a 4-day Easter-trip to Read's Landing, Minn., where they visited at the home of the former's father, T. H. Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond V. Traver, and children, Patricia, Barbara, Donna, 725 S. Chestnut ave., arrived at their home Tuesday, April 16 from spending Palm Sunday weekend in Monroe, Mich. with the former's father, Raymond Traver.

Pre-Easter Journeys

Mrs. Roland Hopp and daughter, Maeve, 437 S. Highland ave., have just spent 3 days in Waynesboro, Va., where they visited at Fairfax hall, a private girls' school.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest B. Tracy, 738 S. Dunton ave., spent the Palm Sunday weekend in Washington, D. C., after which Mrs. Tracy returned to Ohio to visit with relatives in Orrville. Joining her for a week in Ohio were her daughters, Marilyn and Carolyn.

Also Away

Dr. and Mrs. Frank J. Psota, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Dunn and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Baumann, all of Arlington Heights, returned here Tuesday from a 3-day trip to Indianapolis where they participated in the Northwest dental study group convention held at the Sevrin hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Weburg of Paxton, Ill., had as their pre-Easter guests for 4 days last week, Mrs. Howard N. Froyd and son, Freddie, of 610 S. Vail.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Chapin and children, Tom and Carol, 728 S. Chestnut ave., have just completed a 4-day pre-Easter trip to Rockford where they visited at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson. Before returning here, they also attended an Easter family dinner-party held Sunday at the Johnson home.

Here For Easter

John Eakins, son of the G. Melvin Eakins of 407 N. Chestnut ave., a senior at Carthage college, Carthage, left here Monday after spending a 4-day Easter vacation with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson, 207 N. Douglas ave., have had as their Easter-time house guests their daughter, Judy, a student at Drake university, Des Moines, and David Hess, also from Des Moines. Also visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Peterson for 4 days has been Tim Tillmann of St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Douglass of Quintens rd., Palatine, entertained at their home Sunday at 3 p.m. with an Easter dinner party for Mrs. Douglass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, their house guests and Miss Janice Lindholm, also of Palatine.

Because It's Easter

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Olson, 300 S. Dunton ave., had as their Easter guests Mrs. Roy Cornelius of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, and their daughter, Alice, a student at Miami university, Oxford, Ohio.

Mrs. Dwight Longley and daughter, Janice, Florham Park, N. J., are spending 10 days here visiting at the home of Mrs. Longley's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Crommelin, 818 S. Mitchell ave.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simmen of Columbus, Ind., left here Monday after a 3-day Easter visit at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kuykendall, 822 S. Mitchell ave.

From Other States

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Flickinger, 632 S. Walnut ave., have had as their Easter weekend guests, the latter's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Robertson and children, Judy, Jon, Donald and Greg, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Peeters of Indianapolis were Easter-time guests here at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raoul H. Peeters Sr., 803 N. Dunton ave. Mr. and Mrs. Peeters Sr. entertained at their home Sunday for their son and daughter-in-law and for Mr. and Mrs. Raoul H. Peeters Jr. and family of Arlington Heights with a 1:30 p.m. family dinner party.

Entertained Locally

Mr. and Mrs. C. William Mills, 733 S. Mitchell ave., have been entertaining as their Easter-time house guests the latter's sister and brother-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Leach and children, Betsy and Timmy, of Kansas City, Mo. who left Monday for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Roy Bricker and son, Don, of Saginaw, Mich., left Sunday afternoon for their home after a 2-day Easter-time visit here with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Willy, 807 Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kalkhoff, 909 Olive, had as their Easter weekend guests the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ossman and daughter, Bobbye Grace of Louisville. Also making a several week visit at their home is Mrs. Kalkhoff's mother, Mrs. Ethel Reed of Louisville.

At Bunny Time

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gehl and Mrs. Nora Meyer all of West Bend, Wis., have left for their homes following a weekend visit here with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murphy, 813 S. Vail. Present guests at the Murphy residence are Mr. Murphy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murphy of Chippewa Falls, Wis., who arrived Monday to spend several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Benn Coobs of Kelmme, Iowa have been making a 10-day visit here at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Coobs, 1145 N. Mitchell ave.

Jim and Bill Watt, 6-year-old twins of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Watt, 143 S. Fernandez, will mark their birthday anniversary with a party to be held at their home Saturday from 1-4 p.m. Cowboy decorations will be used and 18 guests have been invited to attend.

Clarence Darrow - - Hated Sin But Loved Sinners

One of the greatest champions of freedom ever to come out of the Midwest was Clarence Seward Darrow, attorney for the defense.

It is seldom that a trial lawyer leaves a lasting impression on society. The attorney for the defense usually deals with the poor, the hopeless, the misfits and the outcasts of society. Such clients do not help the lawyer write his name in large letters for posterity.

Yet Darrow, who hated the sin but loved the sinner, achieved lasting, worldwide fame at the greatest defense lawyer of all time.

THIS DRAWLING, shuffling fighter spoke not only for individual clients but for all mankind when he took unpopular cases and preached the doctrine of love, tolerance, liberty, justice and freedom in the face of angry, intolerant and inflamed public opinion.

Darrow was one of the earliest and greatest spokesmen for the new Age of Humanitarianism that is slowly but surely wiping out the despotism and tyranny of the past.

Darrow was born just 100 years ago in Ohio. He was a Chicago lawyer for 50 years. He died on March 13, 1938 and his ashes were scattered from a bridge behind the Museum of Science and Industry in Jackson park, near Darrow's South side home.

THE MEMORY of Clarence Darrow is being honored in Chicago on Wednesday, May 1. An all-day series of events has been arranged by the Adult Education Council of Greater Chicago, which last year focused world attention on Chicago with a tremendously successful celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of George Bernard Shaw.

The Darrow Centenary should be even more successful than Shaw day in Chicago. Shaw was a towering literary figure, but his connection with Chicago was almost non-existent. Darrow, on the other hand, lived and died in Chicago; many veteran lawyers, judges and civic leaders worked with Darrow and loved him.

One of the day's events will be a meeting at which old friends of Darrow will reminisce about the man who, in the words of the poet, Edgar Lee Masters, "was a vicarious sufferer for all sufferers..."

THERE WILL BE a dinner tribute in the evening at the Hotel Sherman. The featured speaker will be Joseph N. Welch, chief counsel for the Army during the Army-McCarthy hearings. Actor Melvyn Douglas will appear in a dramatization of five of Darrow's courtroom appearances.

The Adult Education Council is to be congratulated on their second venture to pay tribute to one of the great intellectual leaders of the world, and on selecting a figure so close to the heart of Chicago and the Midwest.

Most events of the day are open to the public. Tickets to the dinner are $12.50 each and may be obtained by writing the Adult Education Council of Greater Chicago or phoning HArrison 7-2670.

Ghana Trip To Be Discussed At Roundtable

Dr. Homer A. Jack, minister of the Unitarian Church of Evanston will meet with the roundtable discussion group of the Universalist Countryside Fellowship Wednesday evening, May 1, at 8. The meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Robinson, 201 S. Walnut, Arlington Heights.

Dr. Jack will discuss his trip to Ghana where he joined in the celebration of its independence, and his recent visit with Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

Anyone interested in attending the meeting is welcome and asked to phone Mrs. Robinson, Cl 3-8494. (A10

Suburban Officials Protest Tax Hike Plan To Aid CTA

(CNS)—Officials of 2 suburbs have told a legislative committee they oppose any tax increase to benefit the Chicago Transit Authority.

One was Harold Appleby, village manager of Mount Prospect. The other was Ben H. Groves, mayor of Downers Grove. Neither community is served by the CTA.

Appleby and Groves voiced their objjections to CTA tax aid at the committeee's hearing in Chicago Monday.

Skokie and Evanston officials, however, offered the CTA a helping hand but not a blank check.

Evanston's representative said that city favors "tax exemptions for mass transportation."

Sylvester J. Reese, a Skokie village trustee, said Skokie would not oppose a 1 cent gas tax increase for the CTA if each suburb retained the final word over tax money collected within its borders The suburb would have to receive service before the CTA got any of the cash, Reese said.

At the ouset of the hearing, the CTA was put on the defensive.

Orlo H. Salisbury, mayor of Elgin, blamed the CTA for financial troubles of the Chicago Aurora & Elgin railway. Salisbury opposed use of gas tax money for the CTA, although he said if CA&E resumed express service into Chicago's loop "our community certainly would be interested in backing any program."

ASKED IF ELGIN would allow the CTA to expand there, Salisbury said:

"I think we would if we could get a one seat ride into the loop. That would be progress, and we don't want to stop progress."

A Cicero official likened the CTA to a tyrant.

Joseph Kral, town collector of Cicero, charged the municipality received little consideration when it attempted to discuss improvement of service there with the CTA.

"Someone at the CTA—I won't mention his name—told us, 'Well, if you don't like the way we're running things, we'll stop at your border and not come into Cicero,'" Kral alleged.

VIRGIL GUNLOCK, CTA board chairman, denied the charge, exclaiming:

"The CTA stands ready to sit down with elected officials of any city or village to examine their transportation problems to see if we can improve service we are rendering."

Sen. Roland Libonati, a committee member, criticized the CTA's community and suburban relations.

"You must have a bad public relations system at the CTA," he said. 'Everybody is sore at you. Your people must be hiding under a barrel instead of mixing with people."

THE JOINT senate-house committee on mass transportation has been conducting hearings the past month on the proposed CTA tax subsidy plan. However, it has found little support for this and most likely will not recommend any tax increase for the CTA when the committee makes its report in Springfield April 30. (B7

Appellate Court To Review Fisher Outdoor Movie Rule

The Illinois Appellate court, first district, has opened the door to a full review of the now bitterly contested declaratory judgment rendered by Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher March 2, 1956. It permitted the erection of a proposed 1,800 car outdoor drive-in theatre on a 50-acre tract of land on the east side of Milwaukee ave., north of Church st., between Dempster st. and Golf rd. in Maine township.

This the Appellate court did by favorably ruling on 2 petitions.

One was filed on behalf of property owners in the area, and the other filed by the Cook county State's Attorney's office.

REPRESENTING the property owners is Atty. Bernard M. Kaplan, who filed the original notice of appeal in the case last September when Judge Fisher refused to disqualify himself from hearing the matter, and denied the property owners petition for relief.

Parties to the appeals filed by the property owners are the East Maine Township Community association, St. Mathew's Evangelical Lutheran church, 9200 Milwaukee ave., and 26 individual property owners suing on behalf of themselves and other taxpayers.

Morton Fink of 7234 N. Bell ave., Chicago is one of the owners of the proposed drive-in.

THE ACTION taken by the Appellate court marks the latest development in a zoning battle that has aroused widespread interest throughout the county.

Last September 9 community homeowners groups in the area, representing some 2,200 residents, together with 2 churches, 3 schools and others, petitioned the county board to rezone the 50-acre tract to residential use to prevent construction of the proposed drive-in theatre. The county board of commissioners voted unanimously to refer the matter to the zoning board of appeals for hearings, where it is still pending. (B7

'White Elephant' Next Tuesday

An antique string dispenser—intricately fashioned of black wrought iron—will be among the hundreds of unusual, decorative, interesting and valuable "white elephants" to be displayed Tuesday afternoon at the Arlington Heights Field House when the Wheeling branch of the Northwest Community Hospital Center Women's Auxiliary meets at 1 p. m. Feature of the afternoon will be a "silent auction," under the direction of Mrs. William Andrew, Prospect Heights, and Mrs. Harvey Hoffman, Mt. Prospect.

Other items already donated for the unique sale include 2 white ceramic candleholders, a pair of rare cloisonne vases, Swedish-embroidered guest towels and even 2 hats given by an auxiliary member who is also a millinery buyer. Members and guests at the sale will offer written bids to be placed under each "white elephant," with the article sold to the highest bidder in the silent auction.

Mrs. John Vork and her hospitality committee will serve refreshments after the business meeting and the auction.

WHEELING township women of the auxiliary have pledged their active support to the project initiated by Elk Grove township—a men's fashion show, "Tops in Pops," to be presented May 17 at the high school, stated Mrs. Albert Peters, of the Wheeling branch. Tickets for the show as well as the gifts to be featured that evening, are now available from Mrs. Clyde Schuetz and Mrs. William Andrew, Prospect Heights; Mrs. Harvey Hoffman in Mt. Prospect, Mrs. John Sicks in Wheeling and Mrs. Peters in Arlington Heights. Neighborhood captains in the Arlington Heights area will be appointed this weekend, said Mrs. Peters.

. . . with the cast and crew of "The Tender Trap" a comedy in 3 acts by Max Shulman and Robert Paul Smith, presented by Village Theatre, under the direction of Marian Malcolmson at the Arlington high school Little Theatre, April 25, 26, 27. Curtain at 8:30.

SALLY LOLLAR, a comparative newcomer to both Village Theatre and Arlington Heights, plays the part of Julie Gillis. Sally is second grade teacher at Ridge school. She is a native of St. Louis, and majored in education at Northwestern University, where she worked on the makeup crew in 3 WAA-MU shows. This is Sally's second appearance in local theatrics; she was in last fall's "Sabrina Fair."

Sally Lollar

WILBUR (RED) POWNALL (Joe McCall) is a former member of the Kanawha Players of Charleston, W. Va., and the Norton Gallery Players of West Palm Beach, Fla. While in Florida he also played musical comedy parts with the Palm Beach Players and was a member of the Palm Beach Romany Chorus. This is Red's first featured role for Village Theatre, but he has been very active in 2 Talent Bank productions "Born Yesterday" and "Mr. Roberts" since he joined Village Theatre last fall.

Wilbur Pownall

MARTHA BYRNE is one of the hard working crew members behind the footlights. In "Tender Trap" she is in charge of music and sound. Previously she has worked on costumes for "Sabrina Fair" and "Mr. Popper's Penguins" and hand props for "Grandmother Sly Boots." This is Martha's first experience with a theatre group. She attended Mary Washington university in Fredericksburg, Va.

Martha Byrne

Although this is Pat Skampfer's first Village Theatre experience, she is well-known locally for her work in the PTA winter revues. From a girl in the chorus in the first revue, she was graduated to chairman of the second, and was one of the leads in this past winter's very successful PTA show. Pat, who takes the part of Jessica Collins, is the mother of 2 daughters, 6 and 9 years old. Contrary to all appearances she originally lived on a ranch in New Mexico.

Pat Skamfer

MARSHALL MOSES who in previous shows has done "everything and anything" behind the scenes, has been handling the publicity for "Tender Trap" with the cooperation of his wife, Randy. Marsh is the lad who received such excellent reviews for his portrayal of David Larrabee in "Sabrina Fair." He has appeared in the talent bank play "Curse You, Jack Dalton" and in the children's show "Mr. Popper's Penguins" and in last winter's PTA revue. In private life he is an electrical jobber.

Marshall Moses

RANDY MOSES, Marsh's "ever lovin'" made her first local appearance in "Male Animal" and was assistant director for and appeared in "Sabrina Fair." She is currently playing in the Talent Bank production "Who's Nervous?," was Miss Kentucky in the PTA show and has been in charge of stage and hand props behind the scenes in many other plays. She was a member of the Little Theatre of Jackson, Miss.

Randy Moses

BOB RANDOLPH (Sol Schwartz) is from Mt. Prospect and this is his first Village Theatre appearance, although he has appeared locally in Prospect Heights "Music on Stage" benefits. Music lovers will remember his performance in "H.M.S. Pinafore," "The Mikado," and "Waltz Dream."

MARCELLE WILCOX (Poppy Matson) is a Village Theatre veteran. Versatile and Marcelle are synonymous. She has run the gamut from a glamour gal in "George Washington Slept Here" to an aged inebriate in "Silver Whistle." Sprinkled in between there was "Ladies in Retirement," "Gaslight," "Hansel and Gretel," "Cinderella" and "Red Riding Hood" and innumerable Talent Bank plays, and of course always a job behind the scenes; and all this started with a maid bit part in "State of the Union" 6 years ago. Marcelle's lines in that play consisted of one word—"Yes"—and on the second night of the show she was miscued by one of the actors and didn't even get to say it!

Marcelle Wilcox

GEORGE GARLAND'S (Earl Lindquist) first Village Theatre appearance was in "Male Animal." Since that time he has been in Talent Bank plays, and was Mr. Popper in this winter's children's show, "Mr. Popper's Penguins." George was born and raised in the state of Washington and his interests in theatrics started with the Little Theatre of Tacoma, which owns its own theatre and boasts 3,500 members. George, an advertising manager of a plywood company, is a resident of Palatine.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

Paul Fromm, the noted Chicago wine importer who philanthropically donates large sums to the advancement of gifted young composers, has made possible a series of Epic 12-inch albums featuring first-time recordings by talented native and contemporary musicians.

A prime example is LC-3333, which pairs the young American composer Jerome Rosen's powerful First Spring Quartet and the brilliant young Turkish composer Ilhan Usmanbas' Quartet (written in 1947), both superbly played by the New Music String Quartet.

The Rosen score shows the influence of Bartok, but is nonetheless extremely original and compelling; Usmanbas' work is more lyrical, deft and highly enjoyable. Recommended as an ideal introduction to modern chamber music.

TWO FINE Verve 12-inchers from the never-stop-working studios of Norm Granz will please you when you're in the mood for "pop" entertainment. One is "Rudi Vannelli, Maestro of the Guitar." Vannelli combines classical and popular tunes with a vivid artistry which brings out every colorful timbre of the concert guitar. You'll enjoy "They Say It's Wonderful," Morton Gould's "Pavanne," Debussy's lovely "Clair de Lune," and his colorful treatment of "Old Folks at Home."

The other Verve waxing is "Blossom Dearie Sings," heralding a gifted new "pop" singer who is not a little like Anita O'Day in freshness and candor. Tunes include "Lover Man," "Thou Swell," "I Hear Music' and "More Than You Know." She has also a gift for ballad and blues styling, and altogether this is a very pleasing platter. Hi-fi, too! (B10

Gems Of Thought

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Let it be impressed upon your minds, let it be instilled into your children, that the liberty of the press is the palladium of all the civil, political, and religious rights. Junius

Give me the liberty to know, to think, to believe, and to utter freely, according to conscience, above all other liberties. Milton

If "the general spirit of the people" is low, nothing can save freedom of the press; but when the spirit is high, no politician can lay hands upon it. Gerald W. Johnson

Equal and exact justice to all men, ... freedom of religion, freedom of the press, freedom of person under the protection of the habeas corpus; and trial by juries impartially selected — these principles form the bright constellation which has gone before us. Thomas Jefferson

An enslaved press is doubly fatal; it not only takes away the true light, for in that case we might stand still, but it sets up a false one that decoys us to our destruction. Colton

When the press is gagged, liberty is besieged. Mary Baker Eddy

Appoint Rural Fire Protection Trustees

County Judge Otto Kerner has appointed 3 men as rural fire protection district trustees. The order for the 3 year terms was signed Monday. The terms expire the first Monday in May, 1960.

Robert O. Jensen was named a trustee of the Elk Grove rural fire protection district. The recommendation of trustees Edwin Meier and Conrad Wille.

Alfred Busse as a trustee of the Mt. Prospect rural fire protection district. On the recommendation of trustees Norman Runge and Otto Runge, and Henry Moehling was reappointed to the board of trustees of the Palatine rural fire district. (B7

Opening Day ICPT

Thirteen delegates representing Arlington Heights PTA will attend a variety of workshops and general sessions when the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers convention convenes Thursday and continues through Saturday at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago. Parents planning to attend are Mesdames Kenneth Hood, Victor Husty, Wesley Kasl, Jack Keller, Gerald Knitter, John Lindstrom, Lester Ploetz, Robert Schultheis, N. F. Sherman and C. W. Swaby. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tomlinson and Mrs. Helen Castor will represent the faculty.

April Meeting At South Junior High

Parents and friends will not want to miss this premier performance of "What's the Matter with Janie?" an original play by Kay Hawley, to be presented by adult and student members of Village Theatre at 8:15 p.m. in the Junior high school gymnasium next Tuesday April 30.

The play concerns the problems of adolescents in general and Janie in particular. Janie is a shy eighth grade girl whose relations with her somewhat obnoxious sixth grade brother are less than ideal.

This isn't the only problem — but to learn the rest of it, and how these common difficulties may be solved, see "What's the Matter with Janie?"

Mrs. Ruth Sangster, visiting counselor, will be present to lead an open discussion during the intermission between acts. Thus parents will have a chance to find out how good their ideas are on the best way to solve the problems and then see what actually happened!

Directed by Alice Scheske, Kay Hawley plays Mom, Tom Grisell is Dad, Janie is played by Connie Beckway, and her brother, Jeff, is portrayed by Rickey Hawley. Mom's friends are Virginia Hula, Barbara Houskeeper and Harriet Smith. More could be said but instead come meet them all next Tuesday at the South Junior high PTA meeting.

Is Yours Gifted?

The exceptional child study group will hold its fourth meeting of the year, Thursday, May 2, at 8:15 p.m. in the cafeteria of the South Junior high school.

The program will be a panel discussion concerning the gifted child. Richard Hetke, principal of Ridge school, will be moderator. Members of the panel include Ralph E. Clabaugh, superintendent, Mrs. Agnes Skadberg, reading consultant, Miss Phyllis Peterson, Dryden school, and William Fritsche and Phillip Rendone of the Junior high school.

Gifted children are an important national asset. Everyone is invited to attend this meeting to broaden understanding and increase interest in the problems of these children, their parents and teachers.

PTA Card Party Tomorrow Night!!!!

The annual PTA card party will be in full swing Friday, April 25, at 8:15 in the gymnasium of the South Junior high school. An evening of enjoyment with friends, good cards, refreshments and gifts is promised to all who attend. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Spring Bundle Days

The Save the Children Federation has sent all available overseas clothing to Austria for Hungarian refugees, victims of Communist oppression. Now the clothing warehouse in Knoxville is practically bare and help for needy children in this country and overseas will be seriously hampered if the federation is unable to collect 3 million pounds of clothing before the end of the school.

This program of "Children giving to Children" has been endorsed by educators throughout htis country. Good, clean used clothing may be sent to school with children May 2 and 3.

Mark Your Calendar!

Spring bicycle inspection will be the week of May 6. It's time to get the 2-wheelers in shape to pass the police inspection at each of the K-5 schools and the Junior high school.

Men Hear Talk On Merged Hospitals

Presbyterian-St. Luke's hospital, now rapidly taking shape in the West Side Medical center, will give the Chicago area and the middle west one of the nation's outstanding voluntary medical institutions, a local audience was told.

Addressing the Arlington Heights chapter of the National Council of Presbyterian Men at its monthly dinner meeting, James M. Kittleman, director of resources and development, said the merged institution will create "a really great medical institution - unsurpassed in teaching and research facilities and in quality of patient care."

Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, Presbyterian chaplain at Presbyterian-St. Luke's, discussed the activities of the chaplain in a large voluntary hospital and stressed the growing spiritual needs of patients and employees alike.

Kittleman showed slides depicting the various buildings in the hospital development program. Included were the air-conditioned pavilion, a professional building which will contain doctors' offices and hotel-type rooms for patients and their relatives, outpatient clinic, apartment building for hospital personnel and an addition to the school of nursing.

Sinclair B. McCoy, 635 N. Chestnut st., president of the chapter, presided at the dinner. Oliver F. Davenport, 314 S. Beverly lane, is program chairman.

Annual Luncheon

Arlington Heights Womans club will hold its annual luncheon and style show at 1 p.m. Wednesday, May 1 at Chevy Chase country club. Fashions will be by Ida Mae dress shop.

Many club members are planning to take guests to the affair.

School District Tells Boundaries

In clarifying Arlington Heights grade school boundaries for the 1957-58 school year, the school district this week said North school will serve pupils in kindergarten through fifth grade in the area east of Chestnut, north of the railway between Chestnut and Douglas, north of Euclid east of Douglas and Prospect Meadows.

CANCER KILLS!

One man, woman or child every two minutes in the United States

You Can fight back

You are urged to see your doctor at least once a year for a thorough checkup . . . even when you feel fine. Your doctor can detect cancer in its "silent" stage—when chances of cure are highest.

What can be done?

Plenty! Thousands of cancer victims could be saved each year. Today, one third of those with cancer are being saved. But — one half could be saved through earlier diagnosis and better treatment.

How

By the approved methods of radiation and surgery. No paste, pill, potion or lotion can cure cancer. And, we ask that you beware of "wonder" cures. They can be deadlier than the disease.

BE ALERT to the Seven Danger Signals:

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge
2. A lump or thickening, in the breast or elsewhere
3. A sore that does not heal
4. Any persistent change in normal bowel habits
5. Persistent hoarseness or cough
6. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing
7. Change in a wart or mole.

If any of these symptoms appear, it may or may not mean Cancer, but don't take any chances.
See your doctor at once.

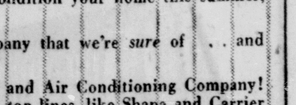
overheard over the fence...
(about air conditioning)



Why don't you completely air condition your home this summer, Lorenzo?

We will . . . if we find a company that we're sure of . . . and if the price is right.

You should call Enterprise Heat and Air Conditioning Company! They handle and install only the top lines, like Shana and Carrier . . . and they guarantee the entire job . . . both commercial and residential installations.

Good idea, Philmour. Have they been in business long?

Over 30 years! And reasonable . . . imagine, a 2 ton packaged air cooled unit for only $495. Say, Lorenzo, you probably need a 3 ton unit . . . that would be $645 plus installation.

Only $495 for a 2 ton unit? How much down?

That's the best news of all. No money down, and payments arranged for your budget. Take it from me, Lorenzo, call them today for your free survey . . .

What's the number for that free survey, Philmour?

Check That Ladder Before Spring Chores

Before you begin thinking about taking down storm windows and putting up screens, think about your ladder. Make sure it's a safe, sturdy one, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois.

Don't let yourself become a statistic in the long list of falls from ladders or arms and hands cut by broken glass.

Ladder mishaps result from improper footing, unsafe angles, too long reaches and overloading. So, for your annual screen and storm-window chore, don't misuse your ladder.

MAKE SURE the ladder has a solid footing on soft ground. If you place it on a hard surface, tie the base to something solid if possible. Don't set the ladder at too sharp an angle, and don't pick a windy day to do the job.

Have someone help you carry storm windows up the ladder, but don't put too much weight one 1 rung.

Don't do the whole window-changing job in 1 session. If you do it in stages, then fatigue won't cause an accident. (AP

Village Firefighters To Dedicate $100,000 'Home'

Dedication of Arlington Heights' $100,000 fire station, the first "home of their own" for village firefighters, will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Village officials, the 25-member volunteer fire department, the Arlington high school band and delegations from 2 local organizations donating equipment for the station will join with the public in the dedication.

A parade of fire trucks from the old department quarters in the village hall to the impressive bungalow-style structure on N. State rd. near Hawthorne will precede the dedication.

AMONG THOSE to address the crowd will be Fire Chief Elroy J. Winkelman, Trustee Frederick A. Weber, chairman of the fire committee, Russell Branwell, president of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, donating a resuscitator, and John Heineman, commander of the local VFW, donating a flag for the station.

Construction began last June after the awarding of a contract in May. General contractor was Ralph H. Meyer, also a volunteer fireman. Walter Kroeber of Arlington Heights was the architect.

A demonstration of resuscitator and other equipment and a tour of the firehouse will conclude the program. (AF

Northwest Heighters

Second Son

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holub are celebrating the birth of a second son, Gary Lawrence, born April 10 in Oak Park hospital. He has a 2-year-old brother, Tommy, who is looking forward to the time when they can play together.

The John J. Burkes are home after driving to California with their daughter, Mrs. Budd Meisenheimer and her young son, Johnny. Their first stop was Phoenix, Ariz., where they visited Mrs. Mary Elson. From there they went directly to Oakland, Calif., and Johnny's daddy, who is in service there. The Meisenheimers will remain in Oakland until October when he will be discharged. The Burkes took the train home, coming back by the northern route.

There were cocktails at the Leo E. Bell's recently for the supper club group before they went to Gunnell's for dinner. Those included in the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Astley, Mr. and Mr. Thomas Gooding, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clemons, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Molis and, of course, the Bells.

Pancake Breakfast

Cub Scout pack 67 had a successful pancake breakfast Saturday morning at Deer Grove. Several Northwest Heighters were there with their sons. The weather was perfect for hiking and high jumping, both of which were popular that morning.

The Lyle Ewings moved to 110 Stratford Monday. Their Ridge ave. neighbors will miss them, but they are glad that they are still in Arlington Heights.

The William H. Groh family celebrated Easter in their home and also at her parent's in Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mauritzen, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Grote stayed home Sunday and entertained his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Grote of Chicago, for dinner. It was baby Peter's first Easter and the family agreed he was the best gift of all.

Keeps Busy

The Roy Holmquists of 918 N. Harvard are realizing these days that going into business for yourself can keep one very busy. Mr. Holmquist is in the tile business with offices in his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Inselberger Jr. entertained several of their family for dinner Easter Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alderton from Lake Villa were there with their children, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Matt Scherer and family from Melrose Park and, of course, the senior Henry Inselbergers.

There To Relax

The John Crawfords just returned from a vacation in Florida. They stayed on Anna Maria Island, off Sarasota, completely cut off from city life. There were no televisions or telephones to distract them, nothing but swimming, lounging on the beach, deep sea fishing, eating and sleeping. His mother, Mrs. Walter Crawford flew down from Boston to join them before returning to Arlington Heights with them.

Arnie Koriath, son of the Arnold Koriaths, celebrated his 11th birthday Easter Sunday. Coincidentally, he was born on Easter. The family had dinner with Arnie's grandparents, the Emil Koriaths. His aunt and uncle, the Jack Lewerenzes of Des Plaines, were there with their children, together with another aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Koriath of Chicago and their children. The evening was spent with Arnie's Grandmother Hummel in Chicago.

Easter Sunday the William Logues entertained Grandmother Logue, Aunt Barbara and Aunt Joyce for dinner. The following evening Mrs. Logue went to the card party at St. James with Joan Furlong, Lucy Erikson, Joan Locascio and Eunice Dale.

More Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Mensching and their children just returned from 2 weeks in Daytona Beach, Fla., where they rented a cottage on the ocean. While there they took a side trip to St. Augustine, Marineland and Lost Mission, the ruins of one of the original Spanish missions. Their only complaint of the trip was that it was too short.

Another Arlington Heights family that just returned from Daytona Beach is the Richard Olstas. They spent the spring vacation there, and also had a cottage on the beach. Because they had their niece with them to stay with their children, they were able to go night clubbing a bit in celebration of their 12th wedding anniversary. Twelve years ago they went down there on their honeymoon, so it has a sentimental attachment for them.

The Charles Baileys of Wing st. entertained the Henry Inselbergers of 718 N. Salem and the George Prices of 709 N. Salem Saturday night for pinochle and refreshments. (A

Virginia Terrace News

Parents Forum

Eileen Brown, newly appointed fund raising chairman for the Wilson Community Kindergarten association, reports that letters giving all details for the program featuring Sydney J. Harris to be held at Wilson school on May 16 will be mailed this week to the parents of all prospective kindergarten students who will be eligible for kindergarten in the next 3 years. Tickets may be obtained from Eileen Brown, CL 3-1969, who commented that "the kindergarten association feels extremely fortunate to have secured someone of Mr. Harris' stature for the opening program of the Northwest Parents forum."

Another sun-tanned couple has returned to Virginia Terrace; this time the reluctant homecomers are the Wally Gordons, 1204 N. Race, who have been vacationing in Bermuda and New York City. The Gordons spent a week at the Elbow Beach Surf club in Bermuda. Louise reports that they spent their mornings at the beach, their afternoons on motor bikes touring the island and their evenings at the various hotel night clubs. Highlights of week were a yacht cruise of Hamilton harbor with a barbecue luncheon on Treasure Island, shopping in Hamilton and carriage and taxi tours of the island filled with pastel colored houses and terraces of luxurious flowers.

shrdlu shrdlu bmb hmhm mm

While in New York the Gordons visited the United Nations buildings and the Museum of Modern Art. They then journeyed to Eau Claire, Wis., to pick up their sons, Casey and Michael, who were visiting Wally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watts. In Eau Claire they attended a family reunion and celebrated Casey's third birthday.

Joan Larson, 1245 N. Illinois, is preparing for a 4-day trip to Columbia, Mo., to attend a president's conference and homecoming at her alma mater, Stephens college. Joan, as president of the local alumni group for the Barrington-Park Ridge area, will represent the club at a conference of presidents from all over the country. Other events scheduled for the activity filled weekend include a visit to old favorite classes which will be in session on Saturday, the Stephens annual horse show, the Susie Stephens fashion show, followed by a reception and tea for the visiting presidents of alum groups. Tommy, Joan and Dick Larson's son, will visit his grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Nussey in Chicago, while his mother is away.

The Dominick Massas and their sons, Carl and Kenny, spent Easter weekend visiting Mary's sister, Angeline, and her husband, Charles, who happens to be Dominick's nephew, and their 2 sons in Edwardsville, Ill.

The Jack Griffith family headed in the same direction and enjoyed summer temperatures and seeing the blossoming trees and shrubs while visiting their family in St. Louis County, Mo., over the Easter weekend.

Stork Shower

Polly Herbert was hostess at a stork shower given for Joan Wayne this past week. Those invited included Vi Rooney, Claire Cavanaugh, Doris Silver, Mary Lou Crouch, Pat Kieffer, Hal Trowe, Jerry Rix, Gera Foshee, Lois Schaffer, Sally Frieburg, June Hunter, Marty Honigman, Florence Hinden, Gloria Kalous and Marian Nielsen.

Mrs. Burnie Wolf, 1247 N. Chicago, is visiting her daughter and sister in Louisville, Ky., after a month's vacation in Miami, Fla.

Easter Activities

The Ed Donath family had a unique weekend in that they celebrated 3 birthdays. Their youngest daughter was 2 Friday, Ed celebrated his birthday Saturday and Joan on Sunday. Guests were Joan's mother, Mrs. Winifred Fingel, and Ed's brother, Richard Donath.

Marie Bender left last Wednesday to spend the Easter holiday with her son, Arthur Wermuth, and his family in Chicago. While there, Mrs. Bender's granddaughter, Camille, celebrated her ninth birthday. Easter the Wermuths were joined by Dorothy and Lennie Ukelja and their 3 daughters, who also visited Lennie's brother, Raymond, and his family.

Carl Massa, teen-age son of Mary and Dominick Massa, has been selected for the freshman baseball team at Arlington high school. Carl plays second base.

Nurses Club To Elect New Officers

Election of officers for the coming year will be the feature attraction when Arlington Heights Nurses club meets Thursday, April 25, at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Oliver Thelander, 14 W. Euclid st.

Hostess at this annual meeting will be Mrs. Edward Schumacher, assisted by the Mesdames Robert Muench, Everett Plank, Ralph Schmidt, and John Pancratz.

Present officers, serving at their final meeting in their respective positions, include: president, Mrs. Clem Stacy; vice president, Mrs. James Drake; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Hilardes; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Low; and treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Weber.

Seats Available For 'Tender Trap'

A few select seats will be available at the door for the Village Theater performance of "The Tender Trap" tonight and Friday. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. in Arlington high school Little Theater.

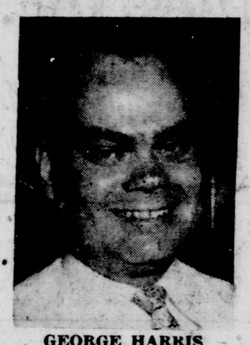
the HARRIS huddle



GEORGE HARRIS

At long last, the weather seems to be getting just about where it should be at this time of the year. Man, I thought it would never get warm, and I'm sure I was not alone in those thoughts.

It will soon be time for those "everlovin'" picnics, and you'll probably plan one real soon and find that you don't have the necessary equipment. Most of the things that you need on your outdoor venture can be found at either one of our locations. Thermos jugs, paper plates and cups, napkins and all the other accessories that are a "must" on a picnic. Nothing better than to get out and commune with nature, the winter months seem so remote and that cold chicken surely does taste good. It is always a wonderful day for the children and let's not kid ourselves — Mom and Dad have a wonderful time also!

Better take along some insecticide to take care of the bites you acquire on a picnic. Outside of taxes there is nothing more certain than chigger bites or some kind of a bite on a picnic. If you plan to go some place that you think doesn't have any ants, let us know and we'll try to furnish those — because no picnic is complete without ANTS. And a happy picnic to you, too.

Lois and Dick Evans, 215 N. Beverly, and their children traveled to LaSalle to spend the Easter weekend with Lois' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Confrey.

Home from Tuscaloosa, Ala., are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Watson, 603 E. Euclid. They were there for a week visiting Mrs. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Atkinson.

This week 2 more Eastwood families returned from Florida vacations. Anna Maria Island, near Bradenton, was the vacation spot of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bronwell, 403 N. Douglas, and their 2 children, Cindy Lou, and Ricky. While there they met 2 other couples from Arlington Heights, the John Crawfords and the Harry Jenkins.

The A. R. Mesnards, 637 N. Beverly, and their daughter, Cherlyn, returned home Thursday from a 3-week vacation at the El Dorado in Treasure Island, near St. Petersburg.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to Dorothy and Milton Winquist, formerly of Eastwood, on the death of his father, Richard Winquist, of St. Paul, Minn.

Here and There

House guests for the Easter weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patton, 1019 St. James, were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis and their family of Detroit.

A family breakfast and dinner were on the agenda at the Matt Cockrell home, 905 E. Euclid, Easter Sunday. The highlight of the day was an egg hunt for the children.

Keith Anderson, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson, 219 N. Lincoln, has chicken pox.

Virginia and Ed Neas, 201 N. Brighton, entertained Sunday with a family dinner party. Their guests were Rev. and Mrs. I. R. Kraemer and family of Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schneider and their 3 children of Evanston. Also from Evanston was Fred Hedblom.

Congratulations are sent to Marietta and Donald Dereby, 416 N. Hickory, who celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary last Thursday with an evening out.

Miss Susan Heitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Heitz, 219 N. Beverly, participated Sunday in an ice skating show presented by the Michael Kirby Ice Skating school in Park Ridge.

Two reminders come from the Eastwood association. One is to keep open the evening of May 25 for the annual bridge tournament banquet to be held at the Legion Hall. The second is to hurry and get tickets for the community association dinner dance scheduled for May 11 at the Arlington Heights country club. (A

Plans for Park

Plans for the park between Phelps and Waterman sts. were discussed at the association meeting held in the home of Louis and Theresa Wisner April 15. Proceeds from the box lunch party will be used to clear the park area. All residents on Phelps and Waterman sts. will benefit from this project and are urged to attend this Saturday, 8:30 p.m., at Bill and Betty Heimenz' home, 31 N. Phelps.

Richard and Dorothy Johnson's daughter, Barbara, was confirmed Easter in the First Presbyterian church.

Easter Sunday Activities

Mrs. Fred Reinhardt was the guest of Don and Shirley Birkeland. Mrs. Reinhardt, Shirley's mother, recently returned from a vacation in California.

The George Lears had dinner with the Matt Lears in Glenview.

June and Dick Treanor traveled to Battle Creek, Mich., to visit June's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hudon.

Glenn and June Rider joined June's brother, Harvey Eich, an dfamily in South Bend.

Helen Lambdin entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roeder and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schram and daughter.

Don and Fran Rentzsch had Fran's relatives as guests for the day.

Ray and Lois Hearl served buffet Sunday to Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Sproule of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. William Tews, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hearl, Mr. and Mrs. George Valentine, Mrs. Mabel Sundt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Putnam and Mrs. Sadie Oberg. Lois' mother, Mrs. Oberg, returned by plane Sunday from a winter vacation in Tulare, Cal.

Howard and Doris entertained the Jim Bickers, Allen Cooks and Charles Pattens for bridge Saturday.

Birthday congratulations are extended to Louis Wisner, April 26, and to Fran Rentzsch, Dorothy Johnson and Carl Jorgensen, who will celebrate their birthdays April 27. (A

Postmaster Solves Stamp Dilemma

Write many letters?

If you do and are always running out of stamps, Arlington Heights postmistress can solve your problem.

Today she is putting on sale for the first time a home-style roll of 100 3-cent stamps, to sell for $3. Previously only 500-stamp rolls were available.

Later, says the post office, a plastic container will be sold for a nickel.

Advertisement For Bids

The Board of Local Improvements of the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, will receive sealed proposals for the construction of Paving Improvements in Gibbons Avenue, Special Assessment No. 136, until 7:30 P.M. (Central Daylight Time) on May 21, 1957, at the office of the Village Clerk at the Village Hall, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

All Proposals received will be publicly opened and read aloud in the Village Hall at Arlington Heights, Illinois at 7:30 P.M. (Central Daylight Time) on May 21, 1957.

The Contract Documents, including plans and specifications, are on file and available for inspection at the office of the Village Clerk of the Village of Arlington Heights at the Village Hall.

Copies of documents, including plans and specifications, required for review or bidding purposes may be obtained only from the Village Clerk by depositing, Ten Dollars ($10.00) with the Village Clerk for each set of documents so obtained.

The full amount of the deposit for one (1) set of documents and one-half (½) of the deposit for any additional sets of documents will be refunded to each Bidder who submits a formal proposal to the Board of Local Improvements, and who also returns the plans (and specifications on additional sets) in good condition to the Village Clerk within ten (10) days after his bid security has been returned to him.

A certified check or cashier's check drawn on a solvent bank in the State of Illinois, payable without condition to the President of the Board of Local Improvements, Arlington Heights, Illinois, in an amount not less than ten per cent (10%) of the bid shall be submitted with each proposal.

No bid shall be withdrawn after the opening of proposals without the consent of the Board of Local Improvements, Village of Arlington Heights, for a period of thirty (30) days after the scheduled time of closing bids.

The Board of Local Improvements of the Village of Arlington Heights reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any informalities in bidding.

The successful Bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory Performance Bond in the sum of the full amount of the Contract.

In general, the improvements on which Proposals are requested will require the following construction:

3,845 square yards 8" Waterbound Macadam Base, with 1" Cushion,
3,845 square yards Bituminous Concrete Surface (I-11),
2,445 lineal feet Combined Concrete Curb and Gutter.

Plans and specifications for this project were prepared by Consoer, Townsend and Associates, Consulting Engineers, 360 East Grand Avenue, Chicago 11, Illinois.

Payment will be made in Special Assessment Bonds bearing interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum.

Dated at Arlington Heights, Illinois, this 25th day of April, 1957.

By Order of the Board of Local Improvements, Village of Arlington Heights.

Round 'n About Westgate

Westgate Community Association

Last Wednesday's association meeting was very interesting. Carl Klehm proved to be a most versatile guest. Besides helping with landscaping problems, grass growing was discussed in detail, followed by a complete showing of colored slides on shrubs, evergreens, trees and roses.

A short business meeting was held preceding the program. Gene Ballou, president, presented Jim Blocki with a plaque for his efforts in helping form the association last year and being the first president of the group. Steve Stein, civic affairs chairman, reported on plans for the coming race track season and speeding throughout Westgate. Ray Herda of the membership committee reported 135 paid members to date. Social chairman, Ralph Hawkes, told of the committee's plans for a dinner dance in November.

Bunny day held in Westgate Saturday was fun-filled. Ralph Hawkes arrived with 2 white bunnies perched on the fenders of his car. Kathy MacCarthy and Linda LeStarge added bunny charm to the day and helped the social committee distribute 400 baskets to children in the community. Children finding foil wrapped eggs in their baskets were awarded prizes. Congratulations go to the social committee for a successful and well planned program.

Next association meeting will be held May 15 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Junior High 2school. Refreshments will be served and a program is being planned.

Parenthood's Rewards Come Later In Life

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Parents, busy with the problem of raising a family of bright eyed, curious, energetic youngsters, with their ceaseless conflicts of personalities and arguments, their noise and incessant demands for advice, help and information, often look forward to the golden day when the children are grown, and on their own.

"When the children are gone," parents say, "We'll take a second honeymoon, just us two, like we did when we were first married!"

THE LAST CHILD grows up, and moves away. There is a temporary period of quiet and peace of mind. Just mom and dad, alone at last! Now they can do the things they always dreamed of. And for a time, they do. Then comes the restlessness.

For the physical separation which takes place when children marry and are gone does not relieve the responsibility which parents still feel for their children. They continue to worry about them and try to help them with their problems. They are happy over their successes, suffer their illnesses, are happy and proud of their children. They are torn between a desire to continue their parental guidance and help, and the knowledge that these children must learn to stand on their own feet, face their own family problems, finances, heartaches, sacrifices and joys. Above all else, they want to see their children established in self contained, capable, independent families of their own; but at the same time they still want to be needed and loved.

MOTHER AND DAD miss their children when they are gone, but they know that some day it will be they that are gone and the children who are here.

Parents must learn to find contentment and joy in seeing a job well done, and living their lives in faith and peace of mind, knowing that they have done their bit toward establishing a posterity founded on firm Christian principles, independence, courage and confidence which will carry on and contribute to the continued growth of national security based on christian faith.

Home Finding Officers Will Meet Sunday

Officers of auxiliary groups and branch organizations of the Lutheran Home Finding Society of Illinois will be among those gathering at the society's headquarters in Chicago Sunday afternoon to bring their annual contributions for the child welfare work of this agency.

The Rev. Arthur Knudsen, pastor of Moreland Lutheran church, will speak on "Parents by Proxy." Kai Henriksen, soloist for the Normennenes Singing society, will sing vocal selections and opening devotions will be given by the Rev. Phillip Nash, pastor of Grace Lutheran church. The Rev. John Cooperrider of Calvary Lutheran church will give the benediction.

Dr. Paul C. Johnson of Park Ridge is chairman of the annual ingathering for this society, which, according to Robert Weagant, casework supervisor, gave care to 32 unmarried mothers, 61 infants and 137 older children last month.

During the gathering, R. A. Gustafson, director of the agency, will introduce presidents of branch committees who will present their contributions at that time. Included will be Mrs. O. B. Korn, Home auxiliary, of Bensenville and Stanley Petersen, Prospect Heights, of the Mt. Prospect branch.

This organization serves 385 Lutheran churches in Illinois who are members of the American, Evangelical, United and United Evangelical Synods. Branch offices are located in Rockford and Springfield. Included in this group is Ou Saviour Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, of which the Rev. John P. Petersen is pastor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's God-given right of progress will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, April 28.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death" will include the following from Isaiah (9:2): "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined."

The following selection will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (233:1): "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfil."

"What if flowers had never been . . ."

The presence of flowers in our world adds more to man's fullness of life than words can measure. The gift of flowers, speaking their words of sympathy to the bereaved, often says what words cannot. Our care of these floral tributes is always regarded as an important responsibility of our service.

It's Spring Party Time Again At Wayside Church

Plans have been completed for the fifth annual spring card party and dance to be held by Our Lady of the Wayside parish, Arlington Heights. Sunday, April 28, is the date set, and the party will again be held at the Chevy Chase Country club, Wheeling.

Growing in popularity each year, this affair promises to be one of the outstanding events of spring time and Rev. Harold T. O'Hara, pastor, assures all a better time than ever before. The card party will start at 7:30 p.m. followed by dancing at 8:45 p.m. to the music of Buddy DeVito and his orchestra.

Prizes will be provided for the card players and other gifts will be given away throughout the evening. All arrangements for the party have been handled by the officers and members of the Catholic Womans club and the Holy Name society, with the president of each, Mrs. Russell E. Gilmore and Richard Drolet, acting as general chairman.

Prize chairman is Mrs. Anthony Mann and ticket chairmen are Mrs. John Cullen and Joe Tamulis. Tickets are available from the chairmen or at the door on the night of the party.

Proceeds of the party will help build the new church being erected on the parish grounds. (A

Smart London Overcoat Thieves Use 'Tricks'

by BILL DILLINGHAM

LONDON—A new trick to steal a man's overcoat has just been exposed in London. It is used to get the very finest quality overcoats with no capital investment whatsoever.

Two men work as a team. They split up, one man placing himself near a row of parked cars, the other at an appropriate place where it is possible to spot the most expensive overcoat being carried down the street on the back of some unsuspecting Englishman.

AT THE proper signal, partner number-one falls down on the pavement, feigning sickness or accident. Number-two then hurriedly approaches Mr. Unsuspecting Englishman and asks for help in aiding the unfortunate man lying on the pavement.

The sight of somebody stretched out on the street in the middle of the day or night is not altogether conducive to keeping one's wits.

At the murmur of "I'm cold," plus a quick suggestive command by the partner, Mr. Unsuspecting Englishman whips off his coat and places it around the "victim."

BY THIS TIME a crowd is forming and the "sick" man is on his feet being helped by his partner into "a more private place" — which is a doorway with a back exit.

The duped Englishman is last heard to say, "But where did they go?"

Already, London streets have been cleared of 5 such teams by the police.

One case, though, did not turn out as expected by the thieves. They revealed this amusing incident to police some months after it had happened:

THERE WAS a Scotsman in town, and to fool a Scotsman regarding money requires the very finest criminal skill of the gentlemen of Soho — London's shady area.

The trick went as planned until the Scotsman was asked for his coat.

"But that man doesn't need a coat! He only needs a nip of something. Bring him over here and I'll buy him a drink — and you too."

BY THIS TIME the crowd had collected, along with a policeman, so the 2 men were happy to accept the Scotsman's invitation. When they got to a table in the tavern and the waiter came over, the Scotsman said: "I feel very awkward saying this — and foolish, too — but I now see, gentlemen, that I've forgotten my money..."

It was impossible to avoid buying the Scotsman a drink, which he accepted. Before leaving, he said, "I know you lads were trying to get my overcoat. Instead, I got you for a stout." (B10

Deferment Tests Set For May 16

A special Selective Service college qualification test will be given Thursday, May 16, for students who for reasons beyond their control were unable to take the regularly scheduled tests last November 15 and April 18, it was announced today by Colonel Paul G. Armstrong, Illinois director of Selective Service.

Applications for the May 16 test may be obtained at any Selective Service local board and must be postmarked not later than midnight May 6, Colonel Armstrong said.

TO BE ELIGIBLE to take the test a student must be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course and must not previously have taken the test. The score made by a student on the test gives his local board evidence of his aptitude for continued college work and helps the board determine whether he should be granted deferment as a student. His scholastic standing among the male members of his class may also be taken into account by the local board. (B10

Mission Supported By St. John Church On TV Friday

The true drama of a mission supported by St. John Church of Arlington Heights and other Evangelical and Reformed churches of the area will be seen on WBKB and other ABC television stations Friday, April 26, on "Crossroads" at 7:30 p.m.

Hugh Marlowe and Pat Hogan co-star in the true drama of a Protestant missionary and a young Indian who restore tribal lands to the Winnebago Indians of Wisconsin and bring them faith, modern ways and education in "Jhonakehunga (cq) — Called John.'

Marlowe portrays the late Rev. Jacob Stucki of the Evangelical and Reformed church who spent 46 years with the tribe, helped them regain their ancient lands, translated the Bible into their tongue and built the Winnebago Indian mission in the 1880's near Black River Falls, Wis.

HOGAN PLAYS THE young Winnebago nicknamed "John," an early convert who risked the almost fatal scorn of his father, Chief Black Hawk, and the tribe to teach the new faith and ways.

The minister, shown an original treaty between the tribe and the U.S., sends "John" to Washington where he wins the aid of President Chester A. Arthur to return the lands "south of the Wisconsin and Fox rivers."

The drama is introduced by the Rev. Benjamin Stucki, son of Jacob, now at the Winnebago Indian school, Neillsville, Wis. who spoke at St. John Church of Arlington Heights last fall and whose work is regularly supported by the Sunday school of St. John church. He also presents at the close, Jhonakehunga as he is today, active and in his 90's. The documentary drama was written by Tom Reed.

Stonegaters Vow Action To Thwart Masonic Building

Stonegate home owners had not filed suit to block construction of a lodge building in their subdivision by the middle of this week.

But a spokesman for the group, Atty. Paul V. Harris, said legal action against the proposal of the Arlington Heights Masonic chapter is still being contemplated.

The modern structure would be set on 3 lots on the east side of Dryden pl. A fourth lot would be used for parking. At each end of the lodge property stands a modified colonial 2-story home.

THE CENTURY CLUB, a Masonic affiliate, was granted a building permit a week ago last Saturday after it had met a condition set out by the village board. The condition required the group to provide 35 off-street parking stalls.

The east side of Dryden pl. has been zoned for multiple dwelling units and lodge buildings for a number of years. However several single family homes were built along the street in the late 1940's and present owners maintain they were misinformed about zoning restrictions at the time of their purchases.

28 Sophs Among 62 Spring Grid Hopefuls Out At NU

As Northwestern's football team reached the halfway point of spring practice this week, Coach Ara Parseghian said he felt progress had been made towards solving some of the Wildcats' more pressing problems, notably quarterback.

Parseghian, who brought the Wildcats far along on their football comeback in his first season last fall, said he is still concerned over lack of numbers, but that he was pleased with the showing of a number of sophomores. He feels several of these newcomers will provide much needed replacement strength despite their inexperience.

RESULTS of spring drills will be put to a test in a regulation intrasquad game at Dyche stadium May 4 which will be open to the public. Returning veterans will be pitted against next fall's sophomores in the game that will officially close spring practice.

Parseghian makes no secret of the fact the Wildcats will be forced to lean heavily on sophomore talent next fall. Out of 62 players remaining from an original turnout of 69 this spring, 28 are sophomores.

IT NOW APPEARS that the Wildcat attack next fall will be directed by a sophomore. Although Bob McKeiver, last year's star halfback, is being tried out at quarterback this spring, this is regarded largely as a security measure and the little fellow will probably wind up at his familiar spot at left half.

This means that the quarterback job, left open by the graduation of Dale Pienta and Jack Ellis, will probably be taken over by one of three sophomores, John Talley, Delaware, Ohio, Chip Holcomb, Evanston, or Bert Fredrick, Sycamore, Ill.

All 3 have displayed enough passing skill to indicate the Wildcats will come up with an improved forward passing attack over last fall when they completed but 33 out of 99 passes. Parseghian would like to see a big improvement in this department.

Easter Egg Hunt A Success

The annual Easter egg hunt that was held in the park was a success. The hunt, sponsored by the Triangle club of Wedgewood, was held Saturday morning; despite the high winds, the Easter Bunny was present, in the form of Maralyn Melvin.

The small children received Easter baskets with eggs and cookies; the older children were entertained at the Warfsmans with a hunt of their own, and many receiving prizes for finding the most eggs.

Wednesday was collection day for Wedgewood's Cancer drive, with June House chairman of this section, and her co-workers were Frankie Mae Schwinn, Anita Sailer, Maxine Schultz, Grace Sylvester, Mary Wirth, Marcy Czerechowicz, and Virginia Cisewski.

Tuesday was the sixth birthday of Pam House. She celebrated Monday with a party for several of her classmates and playmates: Patty Kamp, Elizabeth Maltman, Pam Miller, Christine Hubbard, Shelly Smith, Sandy Hilton, all of Arlington Heights and Carrie Whemhauer, Debbie Melvin and Debbie Haapoja from Wedgewood.

The Louis Sylvesters entertained the Rocco R Aurelios of Chicago and the Ralph Garofolos of Prospect Heights for dinner Easter.

The Womens auxiliary held its monthly meeting in the home of Peg Combs Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Gen Redifer of Lincolnwood was a luncheon guest of Virginia Cisewski Tuesday. (AM

Prescription News

A message from J. T. Keefer, 'Your Pharmacist'

MOTHERS ARE LOVED all year long, but one day each year is always singled out to remind everyone of her importance.

THIS YEAR May 12th is Mother's Day. That is when she truly becomes everybody's "Queen for a Day."

"GOD COULD NOT BE EVERYWHERE, and therefore he made Mothers," an old saying tells us. Napoleon said, "The future destiny of the child is always the work of the mother."

WE, TOO, WANT TO ADD OUR TRIBUTE TO MOTHERS. We know them well. When they visit our pharmacy it is usually to obtain something for the better health or comfort of their loved ones. We can testify to Mothers' constant devotion.

OUR PHARMACY is really one of Mothers' helpers. We are proud of the fact that she often calls on us for information about the health products we supply.

Announce Day Camp Schedule

Several 3-week day camps are scheduled for this summer, Bob Klein and Glen Helms, directors of the Pow Wow Day camp, Potter and Dempster rds., Des Plaines, announced today.

The day camp, designed to build character, will have 3 sessions, June 17-July 5, July 8-July 26, and July 29-Aug. 16. Children may enroll in 1, 2 or all 3 sessions.

ACCORDING to the directors, the camp will be divided into 3 age division — midget, 4 and 5 years old; junior, 6 through 8; and seniors, 9 through 12. Program activities will include swimming, hiking, cooking, stunts, nature study, arts and crafts, baseball, football, educational trips, special activities, movies, singings, games and archery. (AMC

More Toll Road Contracts Awarded

Contracts covering the construction of another 2.51 miles of the Illinois tollways, including the project's longest bridge, and the last of 23 major supply requirements were awarded (Monday) by the Illinois State Toll Highway commission.

In other action, the commission rejected all bids received on a 5.4-mile strip of the Tri-State tollway running approximately from 71st street and Wolf road in southwest Cook county to 31st street and the Cook-DuPage county line north of Hinsdale. B7)

Presses Roll, End His Five Vacationless Years

A young mathematics teacher at Arlington high school has to put up with any number of comments about "teachers' vacations" from neighbors and friends outside the profession.

Though Roderick "Rod" McLennan most often ignores the wisecracks, he could, if he had a mind, readily apply the "perfect squelch," As he pointed out one day during the week-long vacation last week:

"This is the first Easter vacation I've enjoyed in nearly 5 years."

McLENNAN, head of the mathematics department at the high school, explained that the reason for this state of affairs is bound up in red covers and entitled "Plane Geometry."

The 32-year-old educator is co-author of a volume by that name published in January by Henry Holt & Co., a leading New York textbook publishing house. His partner in the venture was John F. Schacht, 53, a teacher in a Ohio high school.

Now that the first 25,000 copies of "Plane Geometry" are off the press and in the hands of distributors, things are back on an even keel in the McLennan household at 206 N. Derbyshire in Arlington Heights.

FOR 4½ YEARS, related McLennan, almost every spare hour was spent working on the book.

Results of many of these hours won't be apparent, sad to say, to the high school sophomores who peruse the book. The manual, says McLennan with a note of pride, "is one of the most complete ever offered to teachers."

The Schacht-McLennan partnership dates back 7 years. Schacht had invented a set of 6 adjustable metal devices to be used by geometry students. McLennan obtained some of the devices through the Chicago manufacturer and experimented with their use in his class at Arlington, where he began teaching in 1949.

Several years later the teacher heard through a mutual acquaintance that publisher Henry Holt needed a new geometry text. McLennan contacted Schacht about writing the book and their collaboration began. In its final version, the use of Schacht's figures is optional for the teacher but both men feel the gadgets are of considerable aid to both teacher and pupil.

ANOTHER contribution of the book, and even more valuable to the scientifically-minded youth, is the stress put on logic. "I think my book is more devoted to the study of logic than any other now on the market," McLennan observed.

The crew-cut teacher was lured to nearby New Trier high school in 1953 but returned to Arlington high in 1955 to head the math department. Now he is teaching a higher mathematics course, solid geometry, with a textbook written, oddly, by a member of his own department.

The faculty's second author is James F. Ulrich, 414 S. Main, Mt. Prospect, whom McLennan brought to the school shortly after returning from New Trier.

ULRICH has also written a plane geometry book, being used at the school this year.

The fact that Ulrich's publisher is the World Book firm and that his writing labors cover the same ground as McLennan's moved the latter to comment that Arlington high school is doubtless the only one in the country with 2 teachers battling for "bestseller" honors. (B7

Arlington Industry Outfits Schools In Modern Look

by TOM BRENNAN

Over the past several decades a virtual revolution in school design has wrought radical changes in the appearance of the nation's classrooms.

Ground-hugging lines and shimmering glass walls are innovations immediately evident. But inside the buildings there are other features equally startling to one who may not have strayed into a school since the 1930's.

Classrooms, once drab and uninviting, now are splashed with color and filled with functional, yet rugged furnishings.

AN ARLINGTON Heights firm has a major part in bringing this contemporary look to today's schools. It is the E.W.A. Rowles co., manufacturers of blackboards (which are no longer black), bulletin boards, window shades and erasers.

From its sprawling plant on N. Hickory ave., Rowles ships these items to construction firms and other buyers across the 48 states and in many foreign countries. Rowles collects raw materials from several sections of the United States and Europe and ships the completed products to spots as distant as Bolivia, the Philippines and Sweden.

Blackboards, now known as chalkboards, form the bulk of the production at the company's Arlington Heights headquarters. More than 50 carloads of composition board and natural black slate roll into the company yards yearly

PRACTICALLY all chalkboards, or 97 per cent to be exact, are now finished in green, Robert H. Andersen, Rowles vice president, explained that green won out over the traditional black during the 1940's because it causes less eye strain.

On special order, the firm will surface chalkboards in tan, blue or coral, however.

A by-product of the switch from the use of natural slate materials to composition board was the elimination of the nerve-jangling squeak as the chalk scratched the slate at the wrong angle.

That, commented Andersen, was a boon to his force of blackboard salesmen.

WHILE IT concentrates on chalkboards and is one of the 3 largest producers in the country, Rowles also does a sizeable business in cork bulletin boards, window shades and a number of related school supplies. A sample of its line of school furniture may be seen in the new administrative addition at South junior high school in Arlington Heights.

The 61-year-old company is also proud that its light-tight darkening shades were selected for the Argonne National Laboratory, the atomic research facility in southwest suburban Lemont.

ERNEST W. A. Rowles, a transplanted Englishman, founded the school supply firm in 1896 in Chicago. After moving about the city, Rowles built 3 buildings in Arlington Heights in 1920.

The present buildings are now 6 times as large as the original ones and since 1939 have housed all manufacturing facilities and the head office.

Present head of the company is R. J. Sindelar, president. Other officers include Ward J. Siewert, sales manager; T. L. Miller, district sales manager, and E. G. Schilling, of Palatine, assistant secretary.

SUMMER is the busiest period of the year at Rowles and a peak work force of about 100 men and women is employed then

A number have been with Rowles 20 years or more. Among the reasons for the length of service is the profit-sharing plan, described as liberal, in effect for more than 10 years.

With the mushrooming of the school population in the postwar years and the consequent boom in school construction, Rowles officials forsee a steadily rising demand for their products.

"We'll just have to expand to keep up with the birth rate," smiled Andersen.

THURSDAY, APR. 25, 1957

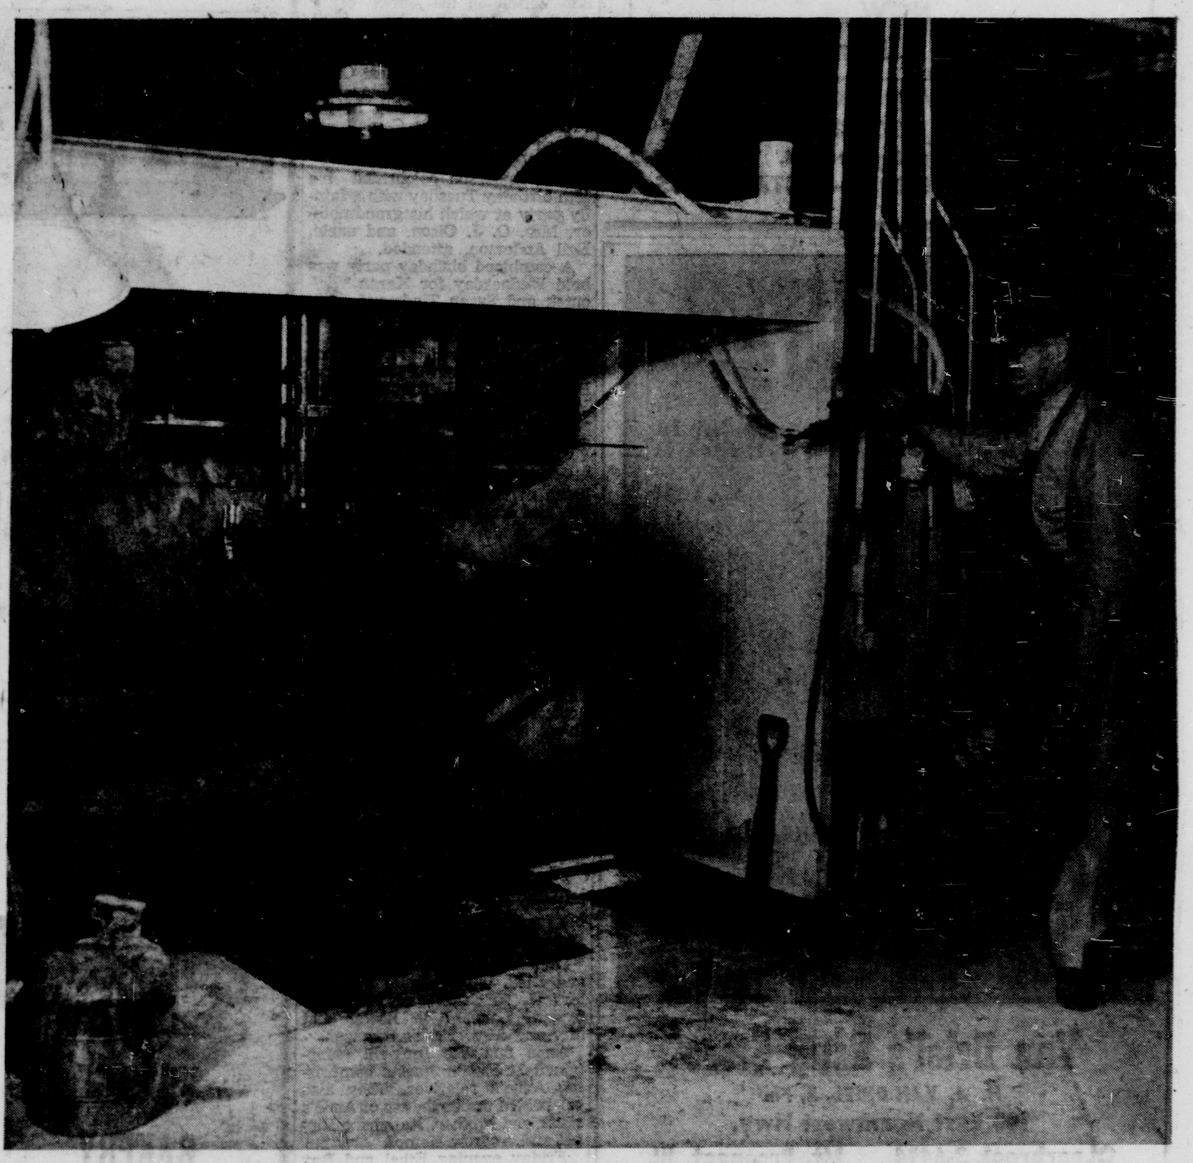
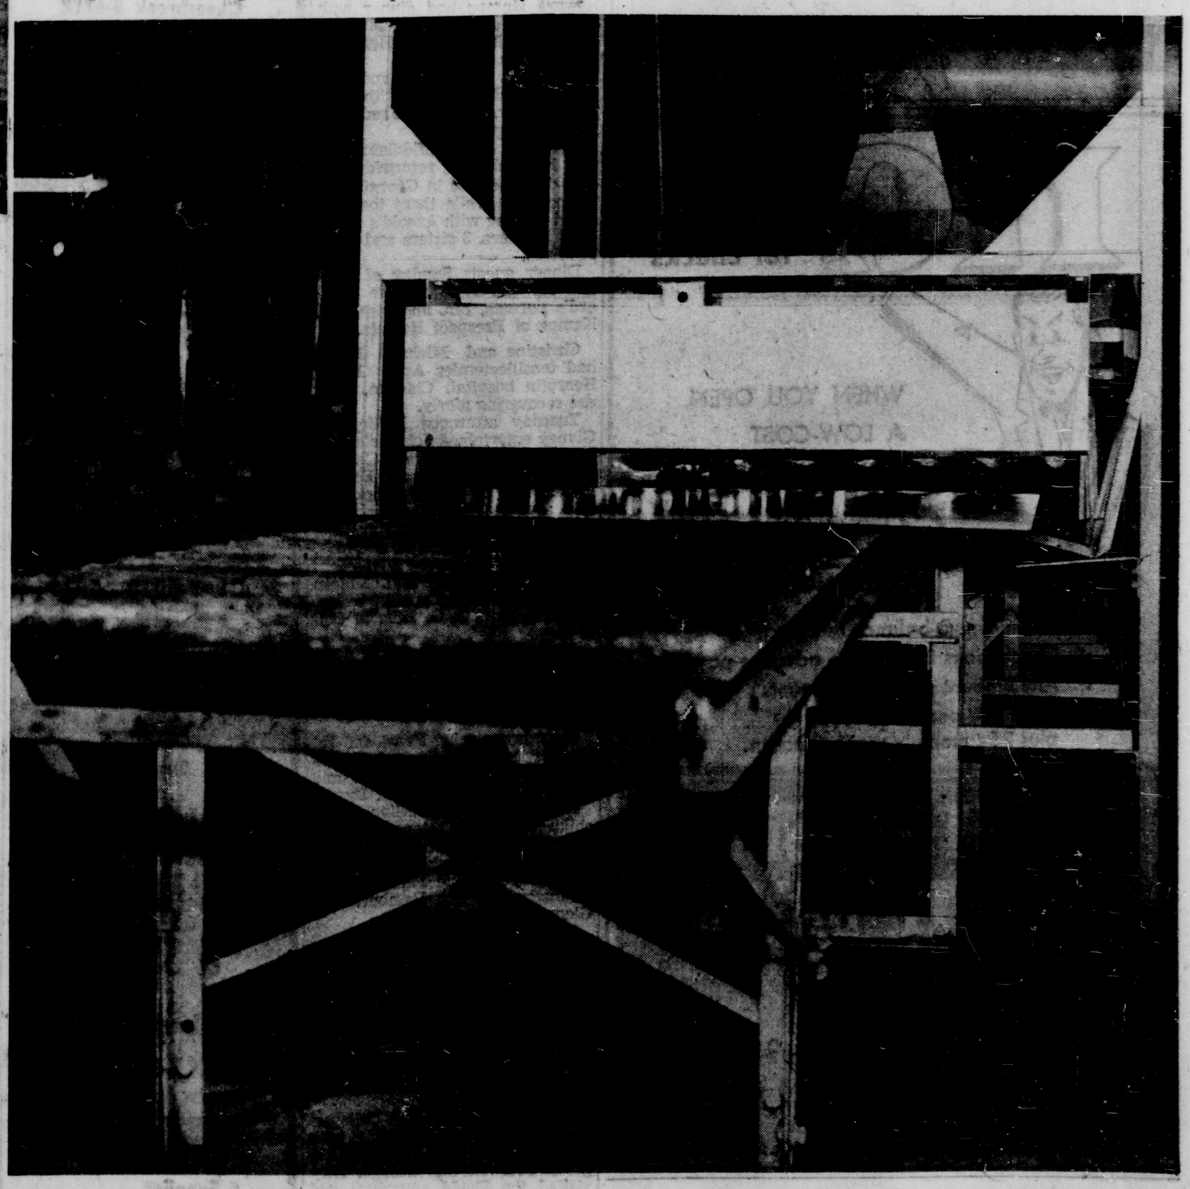
These Pictures Seen In 24,000 Homes

SIX STRIPS of felt are stitched together by this speedy sewing machine operated by Mrs. Dora Gaare of Arlington Heights, one step in the prduction of erasers for hundreds of classrooms. Rowles is one of the nation's biggest producers of erasers.



THE HEART of Rowles' blackboard operation is this automatic sprayer which flits back and forth across the composition board coating it with surfacing material. The operator is Henry Reese of Arlington Heights, who has been employed at the plant for 5 years.

ROWLES BUILDINGS sprawl out over an 8-acre site in the industrial district on Arlington Heights' N. Hickory ave. This attractively landscaped park area is at the south end of the site. Rowles came to Arlington Heights in 1920.



PASSING UNDER the infra-red lamps in this oven, the coated composition board dries in seconds. After its third trip down the production line the chalkboard is cut and perhaps framed in wood or metal and stored away for shipment.

Skokie Still Leads Area In Fuel Tax

(CNS) — Skokie has maintained its lead among northwest villages collecting state checks as their share of the motor fuel tax paid in March.

This was announced by Morton H. Hollingsworth, state finance director.

Skokie received $15,953 giving it the first quarter lead with a total of $51,724.

DES PLAINES retained its number 2 spot with $10,340 received in March for a total of $33,526.

Evanston again led the North Shore with $27,186 received in March for a first quarter total of $88,143.

Arlington Heights, Niles, Morton Grove, Lincolnwood and Golf were not listed among the 151 Illinois cities alloted their share of the tax. (B7

Navy To Offer Commissions To 100 Women

Each year the Navy offers 100 appointments to qualified women college graduates or college seniors. These women are commissioned as ENSIGN, U. S. Naval Reserve and are required to serve 2 years on active duty.

The Navy says that women are eligible if they are graduates of an accredited college or university, are between the ages of 21 and 27, are physically fit and of high moral character.

Those selected for appointment train for 16 weeks at the U. S. Naval Station, Newport, R. I. before going to duties at one of the naval activities located in the United States.

Interested persons are urged to contact the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station in the village hall in Arlington Heights. (WUS

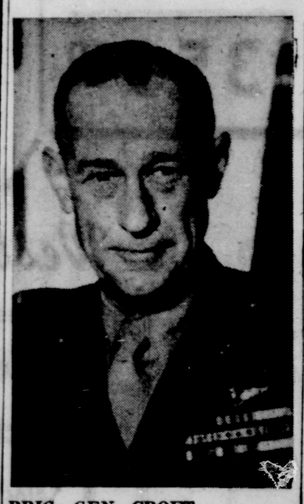
New Commander For Marine Air Reserves Here



BRIG. GEN. CROFT

"In time of crisis I am sure that neither the Navy nor Marine Corps will have to urge the fine young men of this area to go out untrained and die for their country. Rather we shall have well trained reservists — inculcated with a spirit of readiness — who will be able to go out and live for their country."

These words, summing up the concept of the Marine Air Reserve, are voiced by the new Commander of Marine Air Reserve Training, Brigadier General Frank C. Croft, stationed at NAS, Glenview.

GENERAL CROFT, who has just returned to the United States after over a year's tour of duty with the first Marine Aircraft Wing in Japan speaks from wide experience. He has seen the Air Reserves train in peace; has observed their efficiency as they fought beside the regulars in war; and believes in the importance of the reserve role in our national defense. His program hinges on conscientious training to prepare for any emergency which may be forced on us.

"In combat, the difference between good training and almost good training is the difference between survival or failure, victory or defeat. That is why Marine training — regular and reserve — is vigorous and thorough."

A VETERAN of 3 World War II campaigns and post-war staff work with the Allied Air Forces in southern Europe, Gen. Croft has learned the role of air power through 27 years as a Marine flier. He is a native of Winterset, Iowa.

A 1928 graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, he became a member of the Marine air force in 1930 and served on the aircraft carriers Lexington, Saratoga, Langley and Ranger.

He was assigned to aircraft squadrons supporting the 2nd Marine Brigade in action against bandits in Nicaragua in 1931.

Following this and his service aboard carriers, General Croft participated in various air assignments and maneuvers as the Navy and Marines developed the aerial tactics they would need in World War II.

AMONG HIS assignments was a tour with the Navy Department in Washington, D. C., in 1940. At the outbreak of the war in 1941 he was a captain and during the next 2 years he rose to colonel.

General Croft became air officer and assistant operations officer of the 3rd Amphibious Corps in the Pacific Theater in 1944, where he won the Bronze Star medal with Combat "V" for meritorious service in action at Guam and Peleliu islands.

Since the war he has held assignments at Guam, Hawaii and Italy, and later commanded the Marine Corps Air Station and Marine Corps Air Bases at Cherry Point, N. C., until assigned to the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing in Japan and recently to the Marine Air Reserve Training at Glenview.

HE BECAME a brigadier general in April, 1955.

The General and his wife, the former Helen McKechnie of St. Peter, Minn. have a daughter, Mrs. Janet C. Proctor, and a son, Frank W. Croft. The general is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Croft of Winterset, Iowa. (WUS

All-Illinois Navy Recruit Company Has First Casualty

The all-Illinois recruit company in training at Great Lakes has suffered its first "casualty."

Company Commander Randall D. Snyder, boatswain's mate first class, has a slight case of aryngitis and will be "speechless" for at least a week.

Meantime, he is conducting his training through his company recruit petty officers who have been selected temporarily.

PERMANENT "square knot" petty officers will be named in about 2 weeks.

According to Randall, military drill will continue to be stressed during the coming week.

The Illinois company begins drill competition with other companies in its battalion next week. The company is in the 141st battalion and 14th regiment.

First recruit to represent the Illinois company in athletic contests was Gailen D. Dawson of Chenoa. Dawson fought in a recruit "smoker" and decisioned his man in the 141 pound class.

IN WINNING, Dawson gained 15 points toward the "A" flag that is awarded to the recruit company scoring highest in athletics.

Flags are also won for scholastic achievement, citizenship, drilling and cleanliness. A Brigade "T" flag is awarded to the outstanding company in recruit training. There are approximately 60 companies in training here.

In their first week of training, the Illinois recruits learned how to clean, stencil, and stow their clothes and began practicing semaphore and military drills. (WUS

Re-elect Schreiber

Barrington voters April 16 returned Martin H. Schreiber to the village presidency by a decisive margin. Schreiber defeated Joseph W. Meehan for the second time in 2 years. Elected to trustee posts were Clyde L. Church, Max J. Hembrey and John H. D. Blanke. Hembrey and Blanke were incumbents.

Favor Bloom In Palatine Relays Saturday

STAN NORMAN sails through the air with the greatest of ease as he switches from high jump to broad jump, and back again, for Arlington's thinclads. He'll compete Saturday in the Palatine Relays. Stan set a new broad jump record of 20-3½, besides winning the high jump, in the Lake Shore meet Saturday, helping Arlington win the meet with ease.

York And Arlington Could Be Strong Threats Class 'A'

by G. A. McELROY

Bloom, for all practical purposes, has the 25th annual Palatine Relays class "A" championship all wrapped up before it is run. Barring injuries, and other unforeseen circumstances Coach Ralph Steben's squad should take the meet easily just as they did a year ago when they went on to win the state championship. Bloom has exceptional team balance and several very fine sprinters and equally good distance men to insure good relay teams. Their easy victory in the Oak Park Relays makes them a prohibitive favorite to win at Palatine.

York of Elmhurst, winner of the DuPage county meet, is considered the main threat to defending champion Bloom. York han an extremely well balanced team. John Bach :10 and Roy Carlson :10.1 give York a terrific pair of 100 yard dashmen. Don Krebs is a 4:44 miler, Bach a 21'6" broad jumper, Loy Larie is a 11'6" pole vaulter, and Ron Hampsen is 150' discus thrower and 55' shot putter. York has rln the 880 relay in 1:33. Coaches of the area are high on York and their chances to upset favored Bloom.

SATURDAY the "B" class is up for grabs with anyone of a half dozen schools having a chance. In fact the scoring may be so evenly divided that it will take less than 50 points to cop the title. Raising the "B" limits to 1,200 has changed that class greatly by bringing in many schools who have been also rans in the "A" division.

Ottawa, St. Charles, Lake Forest, and the host school, Palatine, are figured to have as good a chance as anyone to win class "B". It takes team depth at the 220, 440 and 880 distances and in the hurdles to win the meet. Palatine, with 2 legs on the traveling trophy, has depth in these events but limited strength in the field events.

The Pirates figure to score 40 points in the 6 relays and that will put them in the running. Ottawa, class "A" winner several years ago, is known to have a strong team headed by Ken Severson an all round performer in 160 yard dash, broad jump, and 440. Lake Forest has Sheldon Prais, returning champ in the 100 yard dash, and a number of other veterans of a good 1956 team. Tom Wells of Lake Forest won the district mile last year and has a top mark of 4:37.

PALATINE'S HURDLE entries include Ken Berg and Jack Thome of last year's record breaking high hurdle shuttle team. They will be joined by Bruce Crane and Ken Gordon or Gene Crandall in the highs and Jordan Danforth and Crandall or Gordon in the lows. Coach Welty expects great things of his mile and 2 mile relay teams. On the mile team will be Jim Eldridge, Evert Larson, Dave Wagner, and Roy Hahnfeld while the 2 mile quartet may line up with Dick Brodkorb, John Wagner, Steve Maurer, and Roy Hahnfeld.

The 880 relay will be picked from among Jordan Danforth, Herb Hauseman, Dick Welty, Paul Wagner, Lloyd Roberts and Dave Knight or Ken Gordon will run the 440 froshsoph relay.

J. E. Stutzman, the efficient manager of the meet the past 12 years, has had entering schools under contract 6 weeks and plans to have the event run off the best of any year in its 25 season history. Times, heights, and distances recorded for the leading entries of each team show the best quality in the history of the meet. Fair weather and a fast track may help rewrite the record book on Saturday.

THE MEET starts at 9:00 with prelims and finals of the 5 field events and prelims and semi-finals in the 100 yard dash, finals of the 2 mile relay, finals of the "B" class high hurdle shuttle, and prelims of the 440 yard frosh soph relay. This makes an attractive morning program. Admission for all day is 75c and 40c. The afternoon session opens at 1:00 with the high hurdle shuttle in class "A".

All relays are run in heats against time with places determined entirely on a time basis. Drawings for heats and lanes were made by the relays committee last Saturday except for the final event, the 880 relay, in which the 5 leading teams in points will make up the first heat in each class. Sam Marzulo, finest starter in the history of the meet, will handle the all important starting gun assignment.

At the finish line the timers will be Wally Grace, Homer Sweasy, Dick Warfield, Mike Rose, Sam England, and Herbert Barton. Finish judges will be Francis Cornwell, Leighton Mangels, Tony Sacco, Frank Gannon, Jack Fabri, and Don Wilkening.

ELIZABETH GODDARD was elected by Palatine high students to be Queen of the Silver Anniversary relays. Miss Goddard is valedictorian of the senior class and top National Honor Society member. Her senior attendant will be Karen Carpenter. Other attendants elected are Judy Sebold, junior; Joy Ness, sophomore; and Courtney Cunningham freshman. The queen and attendants will award the medals and trophies at the meet and will reign at the Relays Dance to be held in the evening in the cafeteria. The dance will be known as "The Silver Silhouette's" and is open only to high school students of Palatine high and their guests.

Carl Megel, founder of the track meet, will be honorary referee and will present the championship trophies at the conclusion of the meet.

Megel is president of the American Federation of Teachers affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. He was athletic coach at Palatine High from 1931 to 1935 and started the meet in 1933. Men who coached teams competing in that 1933 meet and expect to be present are John Trapp of Bensenville, Owen Metcalf of Crystal Lake, and Larry Dale of Woodstock. Metcalf will be the only man to have coached a team in the Palatine Relays all 25 years.

The program of events and list of schools entered, with the names of coaches and enrollments is published elsewhere on this page and with the records, history of meet, etc., will be included in a special printed relays program on sale at the meet Saturday. (Sp

St. James Golfers To Open Wednesday At Rob Roy

St. James Holy Name golf league will start its 15 week play Wednesday evening, May 1, at Rob Roy country club. The first night will be "warm up" with no official matches scheduled. Members are asked to make up their own foursomes. Tee off time usually starts before 6:15 p.m.

The league will consist of 12 5-men teams, said F. M. Ellis, president, and the alternating system will be used with 4 official matches of each team played each Wednesday night. The fifth man will serve as alternate and will be available to play if a scheduled member is absent. Alternates change each week; on May 8th number 5 man will serve as alternate, on May 15th number 4 man, etc.

HERE IS THE line up of teams for 1957:

Era Tool and Engineering Co.; Lonze. Capt. Bodar, Hemsley, Schmidt.

J. W. Henney Co.; Annen, Capt., Brabec, Millay, Valley, Malburg.

Wayside Golfers Form League, To Open Wednesday

Our Lady of the Wayside parish on Arlington's south side has come of age. In a little over 4½ years it has organized a men's bowling league on Monday nights, a women's bowling league on Wednesday afternoons, and a Junior league on Saturdays.

Now the golf bug has bitten the parish and a new men's golf league will be teeing off for the first time Wednesday evening May 1 as 43 duffers try to assault par on Chevy Chase's 2 9-hole layouts.

PLANS are being laid out by league chairman Mert Taylor, treasurer Pat Gilmore, and secretary Bob Taylor to assure a pleasant summer session. Eight teams of 5 men each have been formed to play on a round robin and alternate 9-hole schedule. The balance of the league will consist of alternates who will fill in for those who may not be able to attend all 16 weeks of play.

A league tournament will be played at the conclusion of the season followed by a banquet for all golfers, alternates and sponsors. An entry into the famous "Paddock Tournament" will be a bonus for the team leading at the prescribed time.

Any Waysider can still join by calling Chairman Taylor at CL 3-5108. (Sp

Paul Stroud of Arlington was a recent winner in Maywood sports club shoot, tying with 96 birds out of a possible 100, then winning a 50-bird shoot-off, 49-48.

He also hit 89 of 100 birds at 24 yards . . . First event was at 16 yards . . . Pennsylvania, with 13, leads production of football candidates at Notre Dame with boys signing in from 24 states . . . Irish golfers have a .720 win percentage over the past 23 years . . . Herrin cage mentor Earl Lee currently favors Rantoul for next year, since the Herrin raise of $850 didn't offer much of a future . . . Centerville, Pennsylvania, is the center of football recruiting among "rugged mountin' boys" . . . One 6-1 208-pound fullback has had 50 offers, including UCLA, Houston, West Virginia, North Carolina, Pitt and Michigan State, to name a few.

Says commish Bert Bell "new rule has reduced shoulder injuries, presented a cleaner, faster game without pileups, and has virtually taken the player disqualification penalty out of the game" . . . Ronnie Knox of UCLA, Bears' No. 3 draftee, has given up acting and is in national guard hoping to get his 6-months stint out of the way before football season . . . Third annual BPAA team handicap tournament will start at Detroit May 11 with record $34,000 in prizes, including $7,000 to the winning team and $100 to the 92nd place team . . . Granite City bowler, Mary Pashoff, rolled the first 300 game by a woman in league competition.

SOUTH SUBURBAN LEAGUE will hire 2 officials for their frosh-soph basketball games next season, plus 2 more for the varsity contests. Results of the move will be closely watched by other leagues in the suburban area. It is safe to predict that within 3 years every loop in the area will be following suit. League will hire younger men for the frosh-soph contests as a feeder system for the "varsity circuit."

Basketball is too fast a game to expect men to officiate doubleheaders and do a good job in both contests.

The officials can't coast through the frosh-soph game and possibly lose control of it. The 4-official plan will result in 2 well-worked games by officials who neither have to save themselves for a second game or are fatigued from a first contest.

OVER 300 HIGH SCHOOL and college coaches from six states have enrolled in Northwestern university's football coaching clinic to be held May 3-4 in conjunction with the intrasquad game that will wind up the Wildcats' spring practice. States represented so far are Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa.

It is expected that the total enrollent in the first annual coaching clinic to be conducted by the university will exceed 500.

The principle lectures at the clinic will be Coaches Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma and Ara Parseghian of Northwestern. Members of Northwestern's coaching staff will round out the clinic staff. They are Alex Agase, Paul Shoults, Bruce Beatty, Ed Schembechler, Dick Urich and Dale Samuels.

30 To Carry Heights Hopes In Palatine Relays Saturday

Thirty boys will carry the Cardinal and White of Arlington to the Palatine Relays Saturday, April 27, with field events, preliminaries of the running events, and a couple of finals will be held Saturday morning, starting at 9:00.

Rest of the fare will start at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Track coaches Russ Attis, Bob Scott and Bill Beckman have combined their choices for the big meet with entries in all 6 relays, plus the following probabilities in the individual events:

THE 100 yard dash will have "The Bobs", Lockwood and Mors. Best times of these boys this season have been :10.5 and :10.6.

In the mile will be Ron Marks and Ken Courter, both sophomores but with the very good times of 4:52 as their best performances.

Stan Norman and Bob Lockwood are entered in the broad jump. Norman set a record in this event last week in the Lake Shore meet.

Willard McDowell and Marty Green of Heights will be on hand for the pole vault, though their best marks of 9' and 9-6 are not likely to be in the running.

BILL PALMER, with an indoor 6-5 to his credit, may be able to compete in the high jump after all. He's been ill lately, and unable to compete for a couple of weeks. As of Tuesday morning, Bill felt he would be able to jump, along with teammate Stan Norman, who has gone 6-1.

Carl Klehm will be entered in both shot and discus, along with Jack Weber in the shot and Jim Hoffman in the platter event. Carl set a Lake Shore meet mark Saturday in the discus.

OTHER BOYS entered in the meet, and expected to possibly compete in various relays, include Bob Barbour, Jim Conroy, Mike Dundy, Bill Dodge, Bruce Fichte, Marty Green, Jim Hall, Tom Kennicott, Don Knoepfle, Mike Kaufman, Bob O'Neil, Dean Schneck, Tony Stavros, Frank Sullivan, Ron Taggart, Ed Whitelaw, Ed Wilson, Alan Westergaard, Charles Yeager and Rich Yeager. Ump's Class At Arlington

A meeting of Arlington Heights Little League umpires will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 25, at the Field House at Recreation park. This is the first of a series of training sessions for Little League umpires. Local umpires are urged to come out and hear Cal Hubbard, major league supervisor umpire, talk on "The Umpire's Part, His Responsibility and Conduct."

There will be a question and answer period for clarification of problem situations, with a chalk talk by Rolf Berg.

Any person wishing to assist the boy's baseball program by umpiring is invited. Managers and coaches are also invited.

Beginners And Experts Alike In Ladies Free Golf Classes

Milady will have a chance to improve her golf in May when Paddock Publications annual free golf classes for the ladies are held at Arlington Country club.

The classes, co-sponsored by the local newspaper sports department and country club pro George Dayiantis, will be eheld the four Tuesday evenings in May, starting May 7.

"WE DON'T guarantee you'll cut any strokes off your score," stated Dayiantis, "but do believe we can show you how to correctly handle that club, follow through, and enjoy summer's greatest sport."

That was the word from "the teacher" for the 150 women expected to report at 7:30 those Tuesday evenings, starting May 7. Ladies do not have to register or make any sort of payment whatsoever. All George asks is that ladies bring "a club and a smile — golf club, that is."

INSTRUCTION will include the basic points of golf, grip, stance, backswing and follow through. Daylight saving will be in effect by starting date, so the ladies are sure to get plenty of help for their golf game. Dayiantis plans a review of instruction the final night, plus a bit of experience in putting.

Bad weather sometimes intervenes with these annual free golf classes for the ladies. In event of rain a call to the country club at Wheeling 167 the evening of the class will give the most authoritative answer. In event bad weather cancels one evening's class the instructor will double the assignment the following session. (Sp

Redwings To Preview Players

Arlington baseball fans will have a chance for a preview of the 1957 Redwings Sunday when they and several members of Black's Boosters, second local team awaiting college vacation for many of its players, meet in an afternoon of baseball.

The Redwings have had a good number of players show up for tryouts the past 3 weekends, and manager Bud Blumenthal hopes to have a better idea on who looks best at various positions after a couple of 7-inning warm-up games slated to start at 1:30 Sunday at Recreation park in Arlington Heights.

GEORGE GAARE, who caught Dick Bokelman in high school days, has reported to the Redwings as their latest local candidate. Whether he will play the outfield or behind the plate remains to be seen. George is now out of service and living in Clarendon Hills.

Redwings will play their first game of the new season May 5. Greater Chicago semipro league appears stronger this year than before and should offer Redwing fans some good baseball this summer.

Redwing manager Bud Blumenthal has been named a district commissioner for national baseball congress and will have a hand in selecting a team from the area for the annual state semipro tourney at Elgin the middle of summer.

Classified is like a spring garden — there are loads of "Blooming" good values planted here ready for your picking.

SOME OF THE TOP performers expected to make a bid for new records at the Palatine relays are doubtful competitors. LeRoy Jackson who won the state 100 yard dash at :10 flat and won here last year at :10.2 has been nursing a sprained ankle and may not compete for Bloom until the state district meet. He was a threat to the class "A" 100 yard mark of :10.1 which is shared by 3 sprinters: Kraemer of Woodstock 1934, John Zedrow of Naperville 1941, and Ron Etherton of York in 1955.

Bill Palmer

Arlington's great high jumper, Bill Palmer, may not compete in his specialty in which he made a mark of 6' 5" in an indoor meet. Bill has a virus infection which has prevented him from working out and Coach Attis is not at all hopeful of his competing Saturday. Last year Stan Norman and Palmer tied for first place in the Palatine meet. Stan will probably still give Arlington a win in the event and might threaten the record in a duel with Bloom's lanky colored sophomore, Thurman. Palmer won the state high jump as a soph and tied for second last year as a junior.

WORD HAS BEEN RECEIVED from Carl Megel, who founded the Palatine Relays 25 years ago, that he will make every every effort to be present. Megel is national president of the American Federation of Teachers and does a great deal of traveling visiting locals of the teachers union. John Trapp writes that he is busy with gardening and enjoying his retirement as track coach at Fenton High of Bensenville, on his place up at Wonewoc, Wisconsin, but that he will be down Saturday. He had a team at the first 24 of the meets. Larry Dale of Woodstock expects to be present for the old timers get together and Owen Metcalf will be coaching his 25th entry in a row at the meet.

Dan Horne of Harvard and Jack Grose of Arlington Heights are among those coaches who had teams here 25 years ago but find it impossible to be present because of other duties. We have not heard from Paul Clark, former Barrington coach.

W. A. Johnson, superintendent of Bensenville schools furnished the information that Ivan "Red" Guthrie who won the mile run here 25 years ago went on to graduate from Lake Forest college and served as a lieutenant with General Patton's tank corps, losing his life in the invasion of Germany.

PALATINE HIGH is getting out a printed program for the silver anniversary relays Saturday which will have pictures of some record holders, expected record breakers, and persons responsible for the meet, along with a history of the meet, complete records, schools entered with coaches names and enrollments, officials of the meet, and the program of events and awards. It is a nice 8 page souvenir and will sell for a dime.

To all indications the field events which start at 9:00 a. m. may steal the show this year for quality and possibility of breaking records.

New marks are possible in both classes of high jump and shot put and in the class "A" broad jump. Moving the "B" division to 1,200 enrollment means much tougher competition in that class, and individual events and some of the "B" relays records may be eliminated as a result.

We understand some radio station stated Ernie Eveland at Paris had the biggest outdoor relay meet in the history of Illinois with 44 schools competing. The Palatine Relays of 1955 topped that by 7 entries with 51.

ONE OF THE FINEST track athletes to compete at Palatine Saturday is Dick Haas of Oregon high who won the state high hurdles title last year. This year Haas, in one meet, ran a :10.3 hundred yard dash, a :22.9 two twenty, a :14.8 high hurdles, and a :20.9 low hurdles. Dean Harshbarger, assistant at Palatine last year, coaches the Oregon track squad.

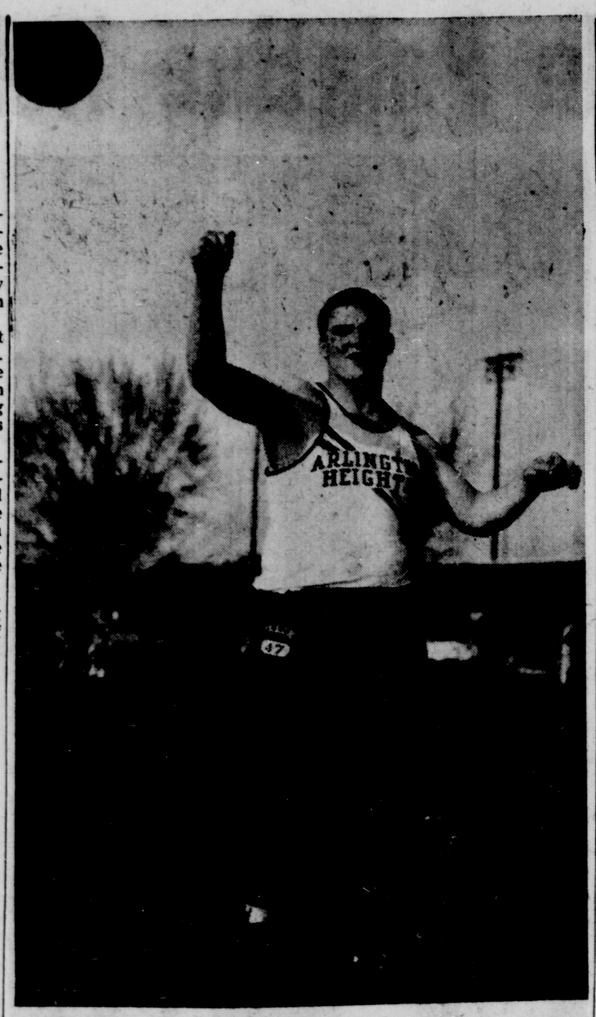
The records of Jim Bowers in the mile and Dick Winterbauer of Arlington in the weights are among the best on the Palatine record book but both boys far exceeded these marks at their best.

Winterbauer in 1954 threw the discus 175' 5½" at the Riverside relays for the best in the nation that year and set a new state record in the shot at the state meet with 57' 2 3/8". Jim Bowers, who won the Palatine mile 4 straight years and the state in his soph and senior years, set a national record in his conference meet at Sterling to close the season last year, running the event in 4:16.1. Watch Bowers at the University of Illinois next year when he is eligible for the varsity.

10 YEARS AGO—April 25, 1947: Arlington Heights will defend their Palatine Relays title on Saturday . . . Arlington baseball team beat Warren 8-1 as Chuck Brache hurled a one hitter and fanned 17 batters . . . Arlington golfers beat Waukegan 17½ to 3½ and Crystal Lake 15-0. It is Arlington's second year of golf. George Payne shot a 38 at Waukegan . . . Barrington and Bensenville played to a 1-1 tie in baseball while Northbrook shut out Ela-Vernon 8-0 behind the no hit twirling of Milton Simon.

20 YEARS AGO—April 23, 1937: Thirteen teams are entered in Saturday's Palatine Relays. It will be the first time for starts to be run out of a chute and the finish line at the west end of the straightaway. Eliminating one curve is expected to improve times in the running events. (It did, as most of the running records were broken in the two meets following).

Arlington and Crystal Lake tied at 74 all in a track meet. Arlington trailed by 5 but a final event victory in the 880 relay tied the score with Folkman, Rohlwing, Smith, and Richards running. Richards won 4 first places . . . Hyde Park of Chicago beat Arlington's baseball team 7-4. Palatine lost dual meets to Grant 76½ to 45½ and also to Bensenville. John O'Brien set a school record for Palatine of :26.2 in the 200 yard low hurdles.



CARL KLEHM, ace weight man for the Arlington Cardinals this year, tosses the discus for another 150' in preparation for Saturday's Palatine Relays. Carl set a new record of 153-4 in Saturday's Lake Shore meet when the Heights trackmen ran off with most of the marbles.

Rainmaker Stops Card Soph 9 Before It Starts

Jupiter Pluvius was the only 1 on hand for Arlington's opening frosh-soph baseball game against Niles Tuesday.

Rest of the gang stayed indoors and the game had to be postponed.

But Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's squad of diamondeers were scheduled to try again Wednesday against Downers Grove and Friday against LaGrange.

STARTING LINEUP for the frosh-soph team, as of Tuesday noon:

Alan Sander catching and Dave Zimmerman on the mound.

Infield would include Bob Voigt at first, Ed Warnecke at second, Pat Corteen at short, Bob Leekley at third.

TWO FRESHMEN twirlers certain to see action this week are Gene Dahlquist and George Bork. This pair has been showing promise indoors, and coach Ormsbee hopes they can do the same on the outside.

Other soph pitchers having an edge include Jim Meehan, Dave Kussow and Dan Raupp. The lineup for the week is merely tentative, and will undoubtedly have many changes as the season progresses. (Sp

Card Frosh 9 To Open At Notre Dame

Arlington's freshman baseball team may find it hard getting on the diamond, due to weather and 1 thing and another, but when the yearling squad, coached by Frank Bohac, does take the field at Notre Dame Thursday and at Highland Park Friday the boys making the trips will probably include the following:

Behind the plate will probably be Bill Andrews and Bill Schumann. Four pitchers could see action, including Fred Petersen, Ronald Schaeffer, Phil Gustafson and Ken Dougan.

FIRST BASEMEN listed by Coach Bohac include Dempster Leech and Dick Passmore. On second will be John Koester and Carl Massa.

At short stop it could be Bill Lips and Dale Hedberg. At the hot corner will be John Beckman and John Lind. In the outfield will most likely be John Miller, Jim Blake, John Lopata and Dennis Garofolo.

THAT LINEUP will probably last through the week. With the lack of outdoor practices, plus so many boys away for Easter vacations, co-coaches Bohac and Kinneman have had a hard time getting a good line on the 60 boys trying out for the squad.

Eighteen had to be picked Monday morning. The magic list has been named, though many substitutions may be made for future games, depending upon what the boys named do in this week's games and what other hopefuls can show in workouts. (Sp

Plan Grade School Track Meet In May

First plans for the approaching grade school track and field meet were announced this week by Arlingtor. Heights VFW. The post will sponsor the meet the end of May for grade schools within the area served by Arlington high school district.

Competition is planned for lightweight division May 27 and heavyweight division May 29. The meet will be held on the high school track with the VFW providing suitable awards.

Events planned include 50, 75, 100 and 440 yard dashes; broad and high jump; shot, pole vault, and 220 and 440 relays. All grade schools in the district have indicated interest in the meet except Mt. Prospect Central. (Sp

Runners Maul Hinsdale

Arlington's enthusiastic trackmen found Hinsdale to their liking Tuesday afternoon on the Cardinal oval as the locals won the varsity 97-20 and the frosh-soph 95-22.

Hinsdale took first in the 880 (Eggert 2:12.1) and pole vault (Keel 11-6). Otherwise it was all Arlington with Stan Norman in high jump 5-10, broad jump 20-2, and 220 :25.3; Weber high hurdles :17, Mors and Lockwood tied in 100 in :10.9, Mors the 440 in :53, Lockwood the low hurdles in :21.8, Courter the mile in 4:55.6.

Schneck won the shot with a 43-10 toss. Horcher's 129-6½ copped the discus. Heights also took both 880 and mile relays. It was grand slams for the Cardinals of Russ Attis in both hurdles, the 220 and the discus, plus first and second in the 100, mile, high jump, broad jump and shot.

GIOVACCHINI took firsts in broad jump and shot for Hinsdale in frosh-soph half. Otherwise it was all Arlington. Gaining first were Whitelaw in high hurdles in :16.8, Chuck Yaeger the 100 in :11.1, Bob Barbour the 880 in 2:16.1, the 880 relay in 1:41.1, Buick in the 440 in :57.8.

Then there was O'Neil in the low hurdles in :22.5, Knoepfle the mile in 5:08.7, Chuck Yaeger the 220 in :24.9, the mile relay in 3:59.1, Hedemark the pole vault at 9-6, Whitelaw the high jump at 5-3, Ahmer the discus at 110'.

Arlington took grand slams in 880, 440, mile, high jump and discus. Young Cards also took firsts and seconds in high and low hurdles, plus the pole vault.

Card Golfers Gain Split

Arlington's golf squad gained an even split against Waukegan Thursday, the varsity winning 10-5 and the frosh-sophs losing 8½-6½.

Bonnie Brook course was in ideal shape for the meet, in spite of the foggy weather before the Heights team arrived. Winning 2-1 or better for the Card varsity were Jacobsen, Murry, Lindstrom and Clancy, but Ed Moehling was on the short end of a 2-1 count.

Competition was match, match, medal. Moehling's 78 was low for Arlington for the day.

Arlington 10, Waukegan 5

Sisolak W, 76, beat Ed Moehling A, 78, 2-1.

Tom Jacobsen A, 80, beat Hellman W, 85, 2½-½.

Rick Lindstrom A, 86, beat Miheve W, 87, 2-1.

Bob Clancy A, 84, beat Meyers W, 85, 2-1.

FROSH—SOPH golfers, under direction of Curtis Larsen in absence of newly married Rusty Dowell, lost 6 points on Nos. 1 and 2 positions, then came back almost strong enough to tie.

Bob Sbarbaro and John Double had rough times, though other members of the yearling squad were able to come through with points. (Sp

Waukegan 8½ Arlington 6½.

Silvestri W, 79, beat Bob Sbarbaro, W, 90, 3-0.

Rouse W, 87, beat John Double A, 93, 3-0.

Al Kruse A, 87, tied Drobnick W, 88, 1½-1½.

Dave Ebert A, 82, beat Gromm W, 91, 2-1.

Bob Schultz A, 92, beat Smrtnik W, 97, 3-0.

Card Netmen Split With York

Once again Arlington's netmen proved they are beginning to be heard from when they split with York Tuesday, the varsity of Ken Schaller bowing 3-2 and the frosh-sophs of Rick Farris winning by the same score.

Thurston Brown won his singles for Heights with Damler and Stadelman copping their doubles. Mott succumbed in his singles 6-3, came back to win 11-9, then bowed 7-5.

Brown A beat Hansen Y 6-4, 6-1.

Spelman Y beat Mott A 6-3, 9-11, 7-5.

Voss Y beat Butterfield A 6-1, 8-6.

Reinecke and Brecht Y beat Longwell and Erickson A 6-3, 2-6 and 6-4.

Damler and Stadelman A beat Veit and Jeans Y 6-2, 6-0.

VON BOECKMAN, Inman and the doubles team of Moudry and Law brought frosh-sophs their victory.

Schmerler Y beat Meyer A 6-4, 6-3.

Von Boeckman A beat Robins Y 8-6, 0-6, 6-2.

Warm Weather Leads Hard Assault On Track Marks

by BILL BECKMAN

With such meets as Paris, Ottawa, Pana, Southwest, Proviso, and the Lake Shore concluded the Prep Honor Roll begins to shape up as the times and distances have improved. The big meets this weekend should further the good marks. The weather has been a big factor in the past week, with most of the state enjoying real track weather.

The Palatine relays this week will bring together two of the most powerful track teams in the state, Bloom and York. Both teams had excellent records during the indoor season and this success has continued outdoors. The Trojans and Dukes could easily finish one two in the coming state meet.

THE SHOT PUT performances continue to dominate the outdoor season with Bob Novak of North Chicago hitting 55'3¼" as Carl Klehm of Arlington and Jack Weber with 53'11" and 51'4½" pushed him to a new record in the Lake Shore. With this performance he joins Bill Brown, Bob Ornberg, Mike Pyle in the select 55 foot group.

One of the best marks in the state was turned in by Tom Jackson, the All-State basketball player from Collinsville when he threw the discus 161'6½" just short of the state record of 161'1 3/8". Carl Klehm of Arlington, Mike Pyle, New Trier, Ron Boling, Bloom and Ron Hampson have all hit 150 or better.

Relay times continue to improve with Bloom and York turning in the best times in the 880 yard relay and Bloom outclassing every one in the mile relay.

WE FAILED to mention last week the fine pole vault performance of Waukegan's Meyer when in a dual meet with Highland Park he hit the best vault in the state at 12'1¼". Many vaulters are approaching the 12 foot mark with only Meyer and Hopkins of Brownstown over it.

In the high jump 8 down state boys have cleared 6 feet or better. Here at this end of the state only Homer Thurman, Bloom, Tony Etynre and Dick Holmes of New Trier have cleared 6 feet. Arlington's Bill Palmer has been on the shelf since the Oak Park relays with a serious virus infection, it is hoped that he will return to competition for the Palatine relays, however this is doubtful.

ARLINGTON'S Bob Mors turned in several outstanding races the past week when he raced the quarter mile in the time of :52.1 twice within the week, first in the La Grange, Palatine, Arlington triangular and then in the Lake Shore. Bob's best time in the 220 of :23.3 was not good enough for the Honor Roll this week.

John Eldridge of Palatine ran several fine quarters also, one a :52.6 in a dual meet and then in the high 52 seconds in the Palatine, La Grange, Arlington triangular.

Bob Lockwood, Arlington hurdler, turned in a blistering :21.0 against Waukegan last week and then finished in practically a dead heat with Joseph's of Highland Park in :21.5.

KEN COURTER, Arlington miler ran a sensational 4:47.3, 4:52.6 and another 4:47.8 all in a week's time. His running mate Ron Marks hit 4:52.6.

Roy Hahnfeld of Palatine really made Coach Welty's face light up when he took the Lake Shore 880 yard title with a fine 2:05.2.

Carl Klehm threw 53'11" and 153'4" for Honor Roll marks as teammate Jack Weber hit over 50 feet consistently and marked a 51'4½".

Stan Norman while he did not make the Honor Roll continues to be a good point getter for Coach Russ Attis in the high jump, broad jump and relays and should hit over 21 feet in the broad jump and 6'2" or better in the high jump. (Sp

Final Practice Sunday For O'Hare

Final practice session at O'Hare stadium, Mannheim and Irving Park rds., for the opening new and late model stock car races will be held Sunday from noon to 4 p.m. The public will be admitted free Sunday, announce owners Bill Cherney and Tex Wooten.

A full and fast field of cars is assured for the '57 season inaugural show. General manager Frank Lobaza already has an entry list boasting some 30 cars and drivers. Eleven in this group are brand new 1957 passenger cars and another 17 are '56 models.

Included in the field are Bill Shoulders of North Chicago ('57 Mercury), Roy Martinelli of Half Day ('56 Chevrolet), Quent Jandt of McHenry ('56 Ford), Gene Marmor of Pompano Beach, Fla. ('57 Chevrolet), 1956 O'Hare champion. (Sp

Card Record-Breakers Lead Lake Shore Meet Victory

It was team balance that paid off for Arlington in taking the Lake Shore track meet, the locals counting 58½ points to Highland Park's 32 in second place. Palatine placed fourth with 27½. Highland Park won the frosh-soph division, 11 points ahead of Arlington, with Palatine down 25 more in third spot.

Cardinals took 6 firsts with record-breaking performances by 3 boys. Normally that wouldn't be enough to run off with a 7-school meet, but 6 seconds and thirds all helped the cause.

STAN NORMAN broad-jumped into the hearts of Arlington fans when he covered 20-3½, almost a foot further than the record set by Schimmel of Arlington just a year ago. Stan also won the high jump at 5-4, a low mark but still good enough to win.

Bob Mors set a new record in the 440 with a dashing :52.1. He also won the 220 in :23.7, and was a member of the 880 Heights relay team that finished first in 1:37.4.

Carl Klehm was the other local record-breaker with a 153-4 toss in the discus. That was 12' further than the record-setting 141-3 by Lew Green of Arlington a year ago.

OTHER RECORDS were set by Highland Park in the mile relay, the pole vault at 11-6, the mile at 4:47.5, and the shot at 55-3¼, wiping out Dennis Striegel's 51-11½ of just a year ago.

Roy Hahnfeld won the only first for Palatine with a 2:05.2 in the 880. Only Pirate second was taken in the mile relay.

CARD FIRSTS in the frosh-soph half of the meet were taken by Whitelaw in the high hurdles, O'Neil in the low hurdles, McDowell in the pole vault and Striegel in the shot. Heights frosh relay team was ahead by 20 yards but was disqualified by a late exchange of baton.

Particularly outstanding in this meet was the work of Bob Barbour who fell as he attempted to pass Altman of Highland Park in the 880, yet finished third.

Palatine's 880 relay team finished second, with Brodkorb getting second in 880, Wagner second in the 220, Freeman tying for first in the pole vault, and the mile relay team copping second. (Sp

Wieboldt's New Store To Open Wednesday

Wieboldt Stores, Inc., May 1 will open the doors of its seventh department store-in the Harlen-Irving Plaza shopping center, at Harlem ave. near Irving Park rd. in Norridge.

"We are just going to open the doors, with a store full of values and store-side parking space for 2500 automobiles," Werner A. Wieboldt, chairman of the board and son of the late founder of the 74-year-old department store chain, said today.

"Later," he added "we will have an 'official' opening."

HE EMPHASIZED that the new store is a "complete" department store, stocking every need from fashions to furniture and including a huge Super Food market.

The 3-story building is of unusual construction. It is built of precase concrete panels, with a quartz stone face. There is no basement, and the "boiler room" and other service equipment are on the roof.

This newest addition to the Wieboldt department store family is completely air conditioned. Elevators are completely automatic, and the escalators are extra wide, permitting youngsters to ride side-by-side with mother on the moving stairways.

There are virtually no windows, other than the show or display windows.

STORE MANAGER will be George C. Burns, who began his career at Wieboldt's as a men's wear salesman, and most recently was operating manager of ing with him will be a hand-Wieboldt's Evanston store. Workpicked staff of veteran merchandising men and women from the Wieboldt organization.

The store was designed by the architectural firm of Barancik, Conte and Associates, of Chicago, also the architects for the entire center. Already it has received wide acclaim from architects and merchandising men because of its beauty, the ingenious use of construction materials, and the interior design which not only affords generous display of merchandise but gives customers comfortable, convenient "one-stop" shopping.

The B-W Construction company, was the general contractor.

While shopping centers in suburban or outlying areas are considered a comparatively new concept in merchandising, Wieboldt's was founded on the philosophy of "neighborhood merchandising." Being complete department stores, the Wieboldt stores in themselves are shopping centers.

Although through the years, the Wieboldt neighborhood stores in Chicago, Oak Park and Evanston have become the focal points of business areas, Wieboldt's has preserved the neighborhood character by providing spacious parking areas for the convenience of its customers.

WILLIAM A. Wieboldt founded the first store in 1883 - a 25-foot front, general merchandise store on Grand ave. near Ashland, in Chicago. By 1897 he was located in his own, new 4-story building at Milwaukee ave. and Paulina - the largest store outside of Chicago's loop.

This and subsequent expansion which saw the building of 5 more giant department stores in Chicago neighborhoods and in Oak Park and Evanston, resulted from the founder's simple business philosophy.

The second Wieboldt department store, at Lincoln and Belmont avenues in Chicago, opened in 1912, and was followed by the store at Ashland and Monroe, in Chicago, in 1925. In 1929 Wieboldt's moved into Evanston, and in 1950 opened a new and enlarged store in that suburb which is also the home of the firm's general offices. The fifth store, at 63rd and Halsted sts., Chicago, was opened in 1930, and the suburban Oak Park-River Forest store in 1937. (BB

ALLERGIC TO GOLF?

We hope not — because this custom built 3 Bedroom and den home overlooks scenic Mt. Prospect Country Club, and offers a tremendous living room and a separate dining room in addition to a 37 ft. pine panelled recreation room — and a separate 31x13 ft. playroom $43,900

BECAUSE OF THIS AND THAT ETC., ETC.

anyway it's a long story, but because of unique circumstances, we can offer this Tackett built 3 bedroom, 1½ bath home to a qualified buyer for only $7,000 down. The kitchen is mammoth, and there's a 32x14 ft. panelled recreation room, plus a 23 ft. porch, plus many more features $37,000 is the way a lot of old time Arlington Heights residents describe the 600 block of North Douglas, and the home offers 3 lovely bedrooms, 1½ baths and the 1st floor den, living room and dining room are all carpeted. The full basement has an outside entrance $33,900 and we feel the 60 ft. lot, the landscaping, and other extras are worth a minimum of $7,000, and we doubt if any builder could duplicate this all brick, 3 bedroom, full basement home for the difference in price — and it is close to schools, shopping and the new South side park — a hard to beat value.

"THE PRETTIEST STREET IN TOWN"

"ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE"

is the answer we feel any builder would be forced to give, if asked to duplicate this 3 bedroom colonial home for $13,900 — yet that is virtually what this transferred owner is doing when you consider that the lot, landscaping and extras are worth at least $4,000. It's a fabulous value in an excellent neighborhood $17,900

These are only a few of our choice new and exclusive listings. You'll be wise to always check with us before you buy — many fine families are happy they did.

Skokie Becomes Retail Giant; Passes Elgin

Skokie passed Elgin for the first time to become the second largest retail shopping center in the north suburbs during January, according to figures of the state revenue department on collections of the ½ per cent local sales taxes for that month released this week.

The Skokie January payments, made in February, totaled $33,690 compared to Elgin's $25,559. For December, Elgin led, $37,058 to $34,705. For the enfire year of 1956, Elgin was far ahead in collections of the state's 2½ per cent tax, with $1,827,509 compared to Skokie's $1,259,359.

EVANSTON remained in first place for January, with $44, 556, which was a drop from $62,376 for December.

Des Plaines was fourth, with $13,693, down from $20,061 in December. For the 1956 year on the state's share, it was close to Skokie, with $1,130,778, and for the 1955 year Des Plaines led Skokie, $899,629 to $782,760. Part of the increase from 1955 to 1956 was due to raising the rate from two per cent July 1, 1955, when the local tax was also enacted.

Highland Park remained fifth, with $12,790 in January, $14,676 in December, and state shares of $778,130 for 1956 and $705,851 for 1955.

WILMETTE remained in sixth position which it held in 1956, with $11,714 for January and $14,005 in December, although in 1955 it was seventh, with a state share of $492,281, compared to 1956's $652,293.

Park Ridge was seventh, with $9,981 for January, $12,303 for December, and a state share of $645,130 for 1956 compared to sixth place in 1955 with $554,189.

Arlington Heights was eighth, with $8,616 for January, $10,711 December, and state shares of $619,129 for 1956 and $489,792 for 1955.

Winnetka has no local tax to give its January rank, but was ninth in state tax, with $470,638, for 1956, and $434,410 for 1955.

BARRINGTON showed the biggest improvement in rank for January, moving to 12th from 15th in December and 20th for the year 1956. The January collection was $5,538, December, $6,480, and 1956 (state share), $163,165.

Other north suburban communities in order of January rank, showing also their 1956 rank based on state share figures, were: with the figures:

Northbrook, 15th, $4,518; 14th, $317.676.

Mt. Prospect, 16th, $4,370; 15th, $308,898.

Palatine, 19th, $3,795; 16th, $301.596.

Bensenville, 21st, $3,152; 18th, $255.533.

Wheeling, 24th, $1,187; 23rd, $110.399.

Rolling Meadows, 25th, $1,126; 28th, $49,743, and Bartlett, 30th, $329 and $23,613. (BB

Streamline Palatine Savings

All accounts at the Palatine Savings and Loan association have been transferred from hand to machine posting with the installation of a new National Cash Register window posting machine, William W. Heise Jr., executive vice-president, announced this week.

The rapid increase in savings accounts necessitated the conversion which will give members the benefit of speedy, accurate transactions. From original assets of $220,000 when the Palatine Savings and Loan association opened April 2, 1956, assets reached $1,700,000 by March 31 of this year, according to a report to the board of directors, Heise said. ROBERT J. PAULY, (left), 125 S. Haddow, Arlington Heights, research senior programmer for Allstate Insurance Company, explains the company's electronic computer operation at Skokie, to foreign visitor J. L. Rothberg of Finland.

Rothberg, a member of the only management consulting firm in Helsinki, is touring the United States under State Department supervision to study the use of electronic data processing in business operations. He has been in the United States 6 months, during which he visited most major manufacturers of electronic data processing machines and the principal business users of the equipment.

Named U.S. Commerce Department Assistant

Edward A. Glaeser of Mt. Prospect has been appointed a member of the industry advisory committee to the United States department of commerce in the field of electronic production.

Judge Glaeser has been a practicing corporation attorney for many years, is the retiring Justice of the Peace of Elk Grove township having served 3 terms, and has served his community in many civic capacities as chairman of the Citizens' committee, coordinator of civilian defense, and chairman of the police pension board.

WITHIN THE PAST year, he became president of Continental Electric company of Geneva, Illinois, and chairman of Taylor Tubes, Inc., of Chicago, both manufacturers of electronic tubes.

As a member of the industry advisory committee, he will be one of the persons who will advise the commerce department and other government agencies on the industry's mobilization planning activities. He will be the only Chicago area man who will serve on this committee.

Chicago Leads Nation In 5-Year Industrial Growth

For the five-year period ending December 31, 1956, the Chicago metropolitan area had more than 2½ times as much industrial construction as its nearest competitor.

With $787 million dollars in contract awards of more than $100,000 each for new manufacturing facilities, Chicago far outdistanced Cleveland's $293 million total in this category. Philadelphia-Camden was third with $279 million, followed by Houston with $258 million, Baltimore with $243 million and Detroit with $226 million. Los Angeles was seventh with $208 million, followed by New York-Northeastern New Jersey with $139 million and San Francisco-Oakland with $135 million.

These are the 9 metropolitan areas in the nation which had a total of more than $100 million in contract awards during the 5-year period.

THE CHICAGO AREA'S lead in number of contract awards for the 5 years is even greater than its lead in dollar volume. Chicago's total of 185 surpasses the next 3 communities combined. Philadelphia-Camden was second with 68, followed by Los Angeles with 59, and Houston with 57.

A fabulous record was established by Chicago in 1956. During this year alone the value of contracts awarded totaled $512 million. With the exception of Baltimore with $205 million, which includes one 200 million dollar contract for expansion of Bethlehem's Sparrow Point mill, Chicago had more dollar volume in contract awards in 1956 than the next 13 metropolitan areas combined.

IN NUMBER of contract awards for 1956 Chicago lead with 57. Cleveland and Los Angeles each had 20 and were followed by Philadelphia-Camden with 18 and New York-North Eastern New Jersey, with 17.

The other 2 areas with ten or more contracts of $100,000 or more in 1956 were San Francisco-Oakland with 14, and Houston with 13. (BB

Junked Cars Go On Scrap Heap

Automobiles and trucks which have outlived their usefulness and are a danger on the streets and highways are a danger on the streets and highways are being disposed of in the village of Schiller Park, by the Schiller Park Compressed Steel Corp.

It is a pleasant sight to watch the old derelicts and worn out cars being weighed-in, lifted and carried by hydraulic fork lift, processed, then compressed in their large press for shipment to the steel mills.

Schiller Park Compressed Steel Corp. does not resell any of the cars so that, if an auto or truck has become unsafe, it is certain that it will no longer be a hazard to the public, once it is placed into their hands.

Car owners need only to drive or tow their old worn out cars to 4601 N. Ruby st., in Schiller Park, hand in the Certificate of Title and receive payment.

U.S. Bond Sales Decline From 1956

Cook county sales of Series E and H. United States Savings Bonds totaled $17,461,382 in the month of March.

This represents a decline of 25.8 per cent from sales for the same month last year, but sales for the first 3 months in the county have totaled 23.5 per cent of Cook county's annual quota which is $254,427,000. (BB

Presents Ideas To Shell Dealers

H. O. KRASS

Some 700 Shell Oil Co. dealers from the Chicago area attended the annual Chicago district spring meeting Monday and Tuesday at the Congress hotel.

Glenn Keister, Chicago division sales manager, discussed the 1957 advertising program and plans for the new dealer council. Through this plan, selected dealers from the Chicago division will meet with management officials to discuss mutual problems.

Harry O. Krass, 415 Wilson, Palatine, Chicago division retail manager, presented 1957 merchandising ideas. He said record sales are anticipated in the coming year. (BB

Mt. Prospect Pharmacist Cites Role Of Druggist

by HAROLD RICKLEFS

Ninety per cent of all prescriptions written today could not have been filled 20 years ago, J. T. Keefer, Mt. Prospect pharmacist, told a group of registered nurses recently in describing the tremendous changes taking place in modern medicine.

Practically all drug preparations today are new ones, which is due to the intense research being done in the drug industry.

NEARLY HALF a billion prescriptions are filled annually, he said. The figure for 1954 was 420,000,000, of which 253,000,000 were new ones and the remainder refills. The uses for which they were prescribed are: anti-infective (internal), sedative-hypnotics, anti-spasmodics, analgesics, cough preparations, dermatolgics, anti-arthritics, cardiovascular, hematinics and metabolics.

The major ingredients in these prescriptions in the order of their importance are: antibiotics, barbiturates, antihistamines, tranquilizers, narcotics, hormones, vitamins and the sulphas.

THE NEW blue book of the drug industry of April 15, 1957, lists 172,340 products, including 43,478 changes from Nov. 1, 1956, Mr. Keefer said. Of these, some 1,400 are described in detail. Research is going on constantly at increasing tempo. Some companies are spending more than 30 per cent of their gross profit on research.

"In research the seed of an idea always takes root in a single mind," Keefer said. "But it takes a team of chemists, physicists, bacteriologists, pharmacologists, clinicians, production engineers and others to bring this idea to fruit."

HE QUOTED one manufacturer as saying "10 years ago only 12 per cent of our employees were in research. Today 19 per cent is the figure. During the same period our research payroll has risen from 14 to 20 per cent. Ten years ago 12 per cent of our fixed assets were used for research purposes. Today 35 per cent of fixed assets are devoted entirely to research."

Research is a big gamble another large company declared. Chances of coming up with a successful new drug are about one to 300. Refraining from research would be no gamble at all, because "we would be out of business overnight."

IN THE CASE of one antibiotic, the chances were one to 100,000. Fifty-five scientists screened that many soil samples, spending $4,000,000 and 2½ years to find their product. The changing picture in drugs is further shown by the fact that of 5,000 analgesics discovered only 8 are in common use today. More than 14,000 compounds have been tested for malarial potency with only 3 or 4 proving satisfactory.

"Rabbits and research — do you know the greatest rabbit-disappearing act of all time?" Keefer asked his listeners. "One company had accumulated 24,000 rabbits and spent $1,000,000 on cages and equipment for experiments on pneumococci drugs. Along came the introduction of the sulpha drugs and a better way to treat the dread respiratory disease. The rabbits disappeared, and the unlucky company wrote off its loss and shifted to other research."

FORTY members of the Mt. Prospect Nurses club met in the home of Mrs. M. Shey, 202 N. Elmhurst ave., and heard Keefer, who is treasurer of the Mt. Prospect chamber of commerce, secretary of the Northwest Suburban Druggist association and member of national and Illinois associations.

"Nowhere in human relationships is there a better example of teamwork for the common good," he concluded, "than in this area of the development, testing and application of new weapons in the warfare on disease. It involves the scientist in his research laboratory, the production expert with his vats and bottling machines, the physician with his diagnosis and prescribing and the pharmacist skillfully dispensing the wonder drugs."

United Air Lines Increase Flights From O'Hare Field

United Air Lines will increase its schedules at O'Hare Field by 60 per cent April 28, it was announced this week by Morgan Nickell, district sales manager.

"The increase is the first step in fulfilling the company's previously announced commitment to Mayor Richard J. Daley to double schedules at O'Hare this year," Nickell said.

The added flights will raise United's service to 16 daily departures and an equal number of arrivals from the present 10 daily departures and 10 arrivals, Nickell said, pointing out that later in the year United will increase its service to 20 departures and an equal number of arrivals daily.

Chicago Firm Offering Air Conditioning Service

Two "Pioneer firms" in the field of air conditioning are combining efforts to offer Chicagoans a unique air conditioning service this year.

Distinguished in the fields of combustion engineering and air conditioning for over 35 years, Enterprise Heat and Power Co., of Chicago, has recently entered into an air conditioning rental service with Leasing Corporation of America.

Previously, Enterprise worked only with central air conditioning systems, however, experience has shown that there are many businesses which can make better use of the window type unit.

M. S. SIMON, sales manager of the air conditioning division, announced recently that Enterprise can now offer to business and industry the National Rental plant of Leasing Corporation of America, for RCA-Whirlpool Window Air Conditioners.

Under this leasing program, customer satisfaction throughout the entire term of the lease is assured because installation, maintenance, and service of the equipment is provided by the local branches of RCA Service Co. Inc., which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Radio Corporation of America and was set up by RCA in order to provide prompt and expert service to users of RCA trademarked products.

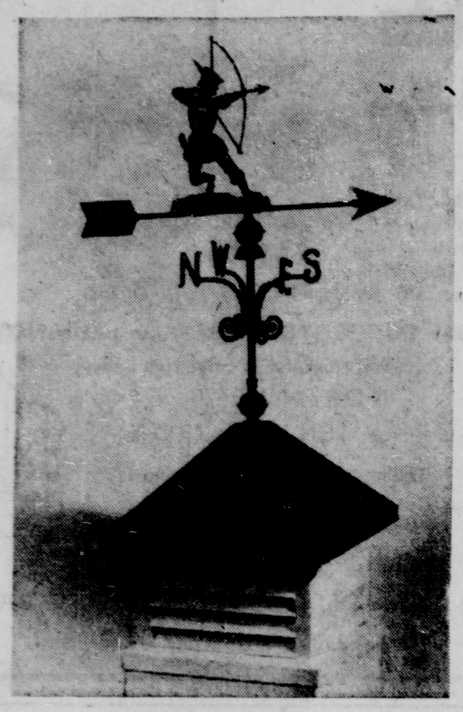
CUPOLAS and WEATHERVANES

WIDE SELECTION



Sometimes an otherwise uninteresting roof can be equipped with a cupola and weathervane, designed by Ernst Hagerstrom.

Ample space for cutting to the correct pitch to fit any style roof. Lumber is kilndried white pine covered with a coat of prime white paint. The roof is of galvanized metal, primed in a dull black finish. Screening behind the louvers will keep out birds and squirrels. The cupola mounting consists of an iron ball welded on a ½" rod which runs down the center of the cupola and is anchored against a cross bar. Ball is threaded at top, so any of Hagerstrom's 36 weathervanes can be screwed right in. We have all sizes in stock!

Hodges Joins Annen & Busse

Annen & Busse, Inc., real estate firm announced this week that Larry Hodges, 203 S. George, Mt. Prospect, has joined the firm as a real estate salesman.

Hodges has had 7 years experience in the sale of real estate and offers his services to his many acquaintances who may be thinking about either selling their home or purchasing a different one in this area.

The appointment of Hodges increases the sales force of Annen & Busse, Inc. to 6 full time salespeople.

Busse, secretary-treasurer of the firm, said the appointment was necessitated by the ever increasing volume of sales brought about by the company. (BB

Realtor Predicts Record Home Renovation In 1957

New records in home maintenance and repair will be set this year in northwest suburbs, Donald D. Florence, president of the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors, predicted this week.

"Reports from members of our Board engaged in real estate sales, appraisal, and management — fields in which they come into contact with a wide segment of our home owners — indicate that this spring northwest suburban areas will see more paintup, fix-up, and solid renovation activity than ever before," Florence reported.

HE PRAISED the home renovation trend as having "definite value in terms of better family living and potential future return on a valuable investment."

Florence noted that in their work, northwest suburban residents are keeping pace with a national trend. A recent survey of consumer finances by the Federal Reserve Board showed that 24 per cent of all "spending units" expect to spend $50 or more this year in bettering their homes. This is the highest proportion of this nature in the 5 years of the survey. (BB

Customs Collector Sees Problems At O'Hare Field

(CNS) A "serious problem" at O'Hare International Airport this year in clearing merchandise under increasing air freight was foreseen last week by Collector of Customs Frank Peska in a talk to the Customs Advisory council at 610 S. Canal st.

"O'Hare field is now international in name only," said Peska. "No space or quarters have been provided for the carrying out of customs or other governmental functions, such as immigration, public health, and plant quarantine.

"CITY HALL officials have conferred with me on several occasions and the outlook for quarters in the near future is not favorable, since they take the position that provision for U. S. quarters must await the construction of a new building.

"Meanwhile, congestion at the Midway International airport has reached the stage where one marvels at the constant flow of traffic without serious accidents. There have been many close calls."

WATER-BORNE traffic, on the other hand he said, has good prospects for efficient handling in the coming season. The new facilities at Calumet Harbor will be substantially in full operation this Spring, with a large warehouse open since April 8.

Last year 547 foreign-origin vessels arrived here, an increase of 10 per cent, while 2,485 airplanes arrived from foreign areas, an increase of 16 per cent, he pointed out. Customs revenue was up 16 per cent overall, to $43,501,222, at the Port of Chicago. (BB

Teenagers Rap Adult Morality At Session

Adults can stand improvement in moral behavior, honesty and integrity.

This was the consensus of about 150 high school students who packed a press conference with Sheriff Lohman and other juvenile delinquency experts in the county building.

Others on the panel included Dr. Edward Stulken, principal of Montefiore school; Municipal Judge Joseph Drucker, formerly of Boy's court; Dr. Samuel Stein, former chief of the psychiatric division of Family court; Jim Hurlbut, radio-TV news commentator; and Mrs. Wayne Leys, co-chairman of the sheriff's senior advisory council on juvenile delinquency.

"I WISH there was as much concern about moral behavior among adults as you have shown," Lohman said.

The students, some of them high school newspaper editors, asked many thought-provoking questions, including: How can anyone expect a policeman and people holding office of high trust to be honest when adults try to bribe them? And, why is it that so many "respectable citizens" own slums?

One student asked why some taverns are allowed to open as early as 7 a.m.

"Taverns should at least wait until 10 a.m. before opening so our parents at least can give us our breakfast," he said.

THE conference was the second sponsored by Lohman's junior advisory council on juvenile delinquency. The junior council is made up of Cook county teenagers and provides the sheriff's office with the teenage viewpoint on youth problems and as it happened in this case, on adult problems.

Students from this area attending the conference included: John W. Roda, 9408 Church st., Des Plaines, Maine high school; Sylvia Bjornberg, 611 Hillside, Barrington, Barrington high; Amy Allen, Barrington, Barrington high; Debbie Browne, 1036 Glenview rd., Glenview, Glenbrook high; and Kathy Seymour, 905 Glendale rd., Glenview, Glenbrook high. Campus Capers

At Iowa State

Students living in the combined Beta-Epsilon Ward at Iowa state college have elected new officers for the coming year.

Beta-Epsilon Ward is one of the residential divisions of the Ward System — the organization, by locality, of the unafiliated men living off-campus.

The new officers have assumed their duties and will hold their positions until March of 1958.

They include: Don East, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn East, 1652 N. Highland, Arlington Heights, civil engineering 1, publicity chairman. (CC

At Illinois

Peggy Wax is newly elected elected treasurer of her sorority, Alpha Gamma Delta in Champaign, Illinois. Peggy is in her sophmore year at the University of Illinois and majoring in speech. (CC

At Marquette

Gunder P. Rask of Arlington Heights is a new member of Alpha Kappa Psi, international commerce fraternity, at Marquette university in Milwaukee. He is a freshman in the college of business administration. (CC

At Bradley

Jean Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Burnett of 318 S. Derbyshire lane, Arlington Heights, was recently elected first vice-president by the Beta Nu active chapter of Sigma Kappa Sorority at Bradley university, Peoria. (CC

At Valparaiso

Crop Reports Show Large Supply Here

by L. H. SIMERL

The April 1 crop report has much of interest to Illinois farmers. Here is a summary of the most important points, together with related comments.

Stocks of soybeans on farms April 1 were estimated at 116 million bushels, 93 per cent more than the year before. April 1 stocks this year equaled 25 ½ per cent of the previous crop, whereas a year before they were only 16 per cent of the previous crop.

(Apparently much less than half of the farm stocks of soybeans was under price support. The total amount under price support was apparently around 50 million bushels, but this total included beans stored in elevators and warehouses as well as those on farms.)

FARM STOCKS of corn on April 1 totaled 1,615 million bushels, 8 per cent more than one year before. (The amount of new crop corn under price support is probably about the same as that of a year ago. Thus the supply of corn on farms not under price support is considerably larger than it was a year ago.)

Oat supplies on farms April 1 totaled 410 million bushels, 28 per cent less than the year before and the smallest amount since 1948.

The nation's pasture rating on April 1 was 76, which was a little better than the 73 reported a year earlier, but not equal to the 10-year average of 81. Pastures were very poor in the 7 range states from Kansas and Colorado north to the Canadian border. Cool weather has prevented good pasture growth.

(There are some signs that the drouth, which began around 1950 in the southwest, may move into the northern plains this summer.)

STOCKS OF WHEAT on farms April 1 were estimated at 166 million bushels. This amount was 23 per cent less than last year and the lowest since 1947. (Total stocks, however, are near the record high of a year earlier.)

The 1957 winter wheat yield was forecast at 18.2 bushels an acre. This yield is equal to that of 10 years ago, which is the second highest on record. Production of winter wheat was forecast at 669 million bushels. This figure is 7 per cent more than was forecast on December 1 but would be the smallest winter wheat crop since 1951. Crop prospects have improved since April 1. (An improvement of 10 per cent would make the 1957 crop equal to that of 1956.)

Production of spring wheat was not forecast in the April report. On March 1 farmers indicated that they would plant 12.8 million acres. This acreage would be 21 per cent less than last year and 33 per cent less than average. Spring wheat production last year totaled 262 million bushels.

INDICATIONS now point to a carryover of wheat on July 1 of 985 million bushels, 5 per cent less than the record carryovers of the previous 2 years.

The reductions being accomplished by near-record exports to Europe. Large exports have been possible in part because the 1956 European crop was poor. The 1957 U. S. crop may be around 857 million bushels, 12 per cent less than the 1956 crop. This and the carryover would make a total supply of 1,860 million bushels, or 9 per cent less than the record supply that was available this year. The point is that the excess stocks of wheat are being reduced very slowly.

Inspection Ends Farm Fire Hazards

Inspecting farm buildings for fire hazards is unexciting work. Only rarely, if ever, will you have the satisfaction of knowing that you have prevented a fire as a result of any particular inspection.

Yet you can see the advantage when all inspections in Illinois are added together, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

IT IS MUCH easier to correct a structural fault than to change personal habits that rebel against dull inspections. Hogsett points out that more than three-fourths of all fire damage to farm buildings results from some construction fault that a careful inspection could have found.

Fire waste is an especially serious problem to farm families. Because of the difficulty of putting out fires on a farm, careful inspection and diligent effort to prevent fire can produce excellent results.

Farm families can control fire if they will.

Make Sure TV Antenna Is Safe

If you have a TV antenna on top of your house that is not grounded properly or equipped with a lightning arrestor, it is like a lightning rod without good grounding, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois.

If lightning strikes, it may damage the TV or set the house afire.

ANOTHER HAZARD is attaching the antenna to the chimney without strong guide wires to steady it. A wobbly antenna will eventually loosen the mortar between the bricks, making the chimney unsafe.

The best solution is to have an experienced service man put up the antenna. Then you can enjoy TV without worrying about a fire hazard. (Fm

SAFETY makes SENSE

by V.E.Burgener, Pres., Illinois Rural Safety Council

A few year. ago I knew a farmer who hitched his dairy bull to a walking plow and plowed his garden. He wanted to convince the animal that there were responsibilities in life, too.

You know what they say about a young man's fancy in the spring. Well, the old bull may get purty cagey too. The best place for him is in a solid bull pen where no humans can get in. And, if they can't get in, it's unlikely he can get out. Sure, you hear of some people gettin' killed by one of the rascals, but you always know that yours will be gentle.

I REMEMBER a neighbor of mine who used to have a kind old bull and tame cows — and since he was a bachelor, they were all just sort of a part of his family. Of course, I recall visiting him and seeing three of those tame heifers go up on the low back eaves of a hen house and clear over the top to get out of the lot away from strangers.

One day old snorter got irritated at one of the 20 cows (and that many wives ought to do it on any given day) so he took out after Joe, the bachelor, who was then well on his way to bein' a deceased bachelor.

Well, to make a long story short — Joe escaped only because he beat the bull to the barn and tripped and fell in the gutter there in the milkin' barn. Being small, he just fit that gutter well enough so that bangin' on the concrete edges with his horns became purty frustrating for the bull and he eventually took his business elsewhere.

JOE WAS BRUISED up a little, but his main loss was that he had to burn his clothes after the saturation they got. As he shot the bull, he said, "By golly. I haven't seen one yet, tame or mean, that was worth lyin' face down in a mess like that."

You just keep proving you're smarter than the animals on your farm and Safety will make Sense.

Quality Chicks Important In Controlling Disease

The old question, "Which came first, the chicken or the egg?" is no puzzle to the progressive poultry raiser. He knows that quality chicks come first — especially in a disease-controlled program.

Dr. L. E. Hanson of the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine advises poultrymen to start this year's disease control program off on the right foot by buying baby chicks from hatcheries with poulmen to start this year's disease control program off on the right foot by buying baby chicks from hatcheries with pullorum-typhoid "clean" or "passed" ratings. He points out that in these days of small margins the poultryman can't "afford" those "bargain-priced" chicks that may be infected with pollorum or typhoid.

DR. HANSON SAYS that good housing and sanitation are also important measures in keeping down diseases. The house should be well ventilated but not drafty. Good sanitation includes cleaning the house and equipment thoroughly before placing the chicks in the house, and using litter made only from new, dry material.

If you put your chicks on range during the growing period, try to provide a range that wasn't used for poultry last year. Move your portable brooder house periodically so that grass range is available and parasites in the soil can be kept at a minimum. Avoid using low land, because wet range offers protection to disease organisms.

DR. HANSON RAISES these other points that he says poultrymen need to remember:

1. Raise growing chicks apart from older chickens and other farm fowl. Young chicks are more susceptible to many diseases than adult chickens. Also, adult birds may be carrying diseases without showing any signs.

2. Vaccinate, when necessary, before the chickens are 16 weeks old. Your veterinarian can advise you on the vaccine to use after he investigates the needs of your flock.

3. Keep visitors out of the poultry yard and buildings.

4. Control rodents that not only destroy feed, but may also carry such diseases as paratyphoid.

Garden Seed Treatment To Help Germination: Linn

Chemical treatment insured that good seed will sprout and not rot in the soil, says M. B. Linn, University of Illinois plant pathologist.

Selecting reliable seed is the first part of making sure the seeds you plant will sprout and grow. Chemical seed treatment does the rest.

PROTECTING chemicals form a layer on the outside of the seed coat, preventing penetration by disease organisms. For treating garden seed, Linn recommends Arasan, Spergon, Orthocide 75, Phygon Seed Protectant and Semesan. Home gardeners can buy one or more of these materials in small packages.

All of these fungicides protect most garden seeds. However, Semesan is recommended only for seeds in the cabbage family. Besides cabbage, this group includes broccoli, radish, turnip, kohlrabi and cauliflower. Carrot, parsley and parsnip seeds usually do not need treatment.

Treating seeds is simple, Linn explains. For small packets of seed, split the corner of the envelope and put in the amount of chemical that will stay on the tip quarter-inch of a penknife blade; close the envelope and shake it for half a minute. The seed is then ready to plant.

IF YOU TREAT larger amounts of such seed as peas, beans or corn, put the seed into a fruit jar, add the proper amount of chemical, close the jar and shake it for half a minute. Use 1/3 to ½ teaspoon of Semesan or ½ to 1 teaspoon of other chemicals per pound of seed.

All seed treatment chemicals are somewhat poisonous. Store them out of children's reach. Wash your hands thoroughly after handling treated seed. If you use a fruit jar for mixing, throw it away or keep it only for treating seed.

If you wish to treat pea seed with inoculant, use the chemical treatment first and then apply the inoculant.

Law On The Farm

Two years ago corporations in Illinois were surprised by the Supreme court's decision that the Illinois constitution prevents staggered terms for corporate directors. The case was Wolfson vs. Montgomery Ward. The decision seemed to apply to cooperatives as well as other corporations.

The reasoning of the court was that the constitution guaranteed stockholders the right to cumulate their votes—and only by voting for all directors at one election would they have the full advantage of cumulating votes.

This decision still stands in Illinois, and we still think it applies to co-ops. But 2 other states, Ohio and Pennsylvania, with similar provisions in their constitutions, have held that staggered terms for directors are permissible. They see no inconsistency between staggered terms for directors and the constitutional right of cumulative voting.

THERE ARE 6 other states that have cumulative voting clauses in their constitutions — Kentucky, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey and West Virginia. They are wondering what their position might be on staggered elections. Ohio and Pennsylvania have upheld the custom of staggered terms for directors, but this long-standing practice has been overturned in Illinois.

Both positions have been argued persuasively by the highest state courts. It would appear that the other states could choose either position with at least some logical reasoning.

Conservation Woe

It takes 5 million trees a year to provide the timber needed for maintaining communications and power lines in the U. S.

Guernsey Cows Make Records

Edward B. Henslee, Arlington Heights, is the owner of 2 registered Guernseys that have recently completed official production records in the Advanced Registry division of the American Guernsey Cattle club.

Castle Brook Annabelle, a junior 2-year-old, produced 9,776 pounds of milk and 552 pounds of fat in 305 days. She was milked 3 times daily.

Flying M Aldiane, was a junior 2 year old, produced 9,883 pounds of milk and 490 pounds of fat in 305 days. She was milked 2 times daily.

These official production records were supervised by University of Illinois.

Divided Defense

The Department of Defense was created September 18, 1947, and divided into the Departments of Navy, Army and Air Force.

According to the data collected in our soil testing laboratory in 1956, there were 157 farmers who tested their soil. This represented a total of 8,300 acres.

There were many more people who took advantage of this service for their home gardens and lawns. If you want to know what fertilizer to apply to your lawn run a test on it and find out. You can call my office for details.

Fire Blight on Apples and Pears

Fire blight is a bacterial disease that mainly attacks apples, crabapples and pear trees. It is first noticed in the spring when the blossoms start to turn brown and die. It may also infect the young leaves and twigs during the month of May, June and July. Once fire blight hits the blossoms, twigs or leaves, it spreads through the combium layer between the bark and wood, killing the limb and turning the leaves dark brown as it moves. Such infections may invade from 6 inches to 4 feet of a branch.

Streptomycin, an antibiotic, when applied at a dosage of 75 to 100 parts per million is the most effective method for controlling fire blight. It should be applied first when 5 to 10 per cent of the blossoms have opened and repeated every 7 days.

Good sanitation is advisable. Heavy applications of nitrogen fertilizers will promote tree vigor but will increase susceptibility to blight infections.

When to Plant Early Vegetables

The time to plant your early vegetables will depend on their hardiness and the temperature. Average date of the last killing frost in the spring is a good general guide to follow in planting vegetables. The last killing frost for this area averages from April 30 to May 5. Unpredictable weather may change this average any year though.

Hogs Still "Mortgage Lifters"

W. D. Buddimeier, agricultural agronomist, University of Illinois told bankers at a conference held at the University of Illinois last week that hogs had made profits in 16 of the past 21 years. This is a more favorable record than that of dairy herds, feeder cattle or poultry.

Cherry Leaf Spot

Cherry leaf spot is one of the most serious of the cherry diseases. It is caused by a fungus known as coccomyces Haemalis.

Symptoms

Cherry leaf spot infects mainly the leaves, but it may also cause damage on the fruit, petiales and pedicels. During the latter part of May and the first half of June, minute purple spots appear on the upper surface of the leaves. These spots may gradually enlarge or remain small, depending on how severe the infection is. After six to eight weeks the center of the infected spot may fall out. the infected spot may fall out.

Control

Fortunately cherry leaf spot is not hard to control, provided the correct fungicide is used. Four applications of a suitable fungicide may be needed. Either of the following fungicides have proven satisfactory.

Captan—2 tablespoons in 3 gallons of water.

Ferborn —2 tablespoons in 3 gallons of water.

Glyodin — 2 tablespoons in 3 gallons of water.

Just Around The Corner From Patty McArdle

Art's Return To Reason

Dear Peg:

I've been enjoying my new painting lessons, begun in January at the Winnetka Community House, so much — I'm sure that there are few activities so completely absorbing!

Although it's quite a jaunt from our home, it's traveling time well spent to receive instruction from our teacher, Harry Mintz, one of Chicago's finest artists.

Besides learning the fundamentals of art and trying to develop whatever talent you may have in that field, you begin to understand, through instruction and conversation with teacher and students, a little of what art today is all about.

More specifically, you begin to understand what it is that contemporary artists are trying to say or to make you feel and also why it is that some paintings seem to possess no comprehendible message or feeling at all.

With this new knowledge (meager though it may be after only 2 years of instruction) and having studied work in many juried and non-juried art shows, I have reached the conclusion that we are stalled in a state of abstract-experimentation in which good and bad exist side by side — each with a blue ribbon!

Charlotte Levin, writing for the Art League News in an article entitled "Tyl Eulenspiegel's Modern Pranks," has some pointed remarks on this subject, that I hope will reach the attention of some future judges of art shows.

The writer likens much of the trickery in modern art to the prank of Tyl Eulenspiegel who was contracted to paint a mural for one of the fine lords living long ago in the German countryside. He worked for days on the mural behind closed doors, with no one watching him, and for days, lived richly from the money collected to pay for his supplies.

The people all knew, because Tyl told them, that the paint he used had a magical quality which made it visible to only those of perfect honesty. So, on the day of the unveiling all the people who came to view it "oohed" and "aahed" at the masterpiece while staring at a blank wall.

"Today too many people who have training and intelligence to know better are afraid to speak up and say that the pictures just aren't there. They can see nothing in these pictures, and the type of sculpture which accompanies them — because there is nothing to be seen. A cloak of abstraction and non-objectiveism is used to hide the bare bones of no talent, no taste, no skill, but a great deal of nerve. The people-who-should-know-better, however, have been led to believe that if they can't appreciate this stuff they are hopelessly out of date, not in the know, and hidebound conservatives."

Critic Levin goes on to say, "For myself, I like a painting or piece of sculpture which is original in concept or execution, preferably both. It must be executed with talent and skill, and should be comprehensible within itself . . . I like all kinds of paintings and sculpture realistic, abstract, completely non-objective. But, I think we have to set up some criteria for ourselves — a work or art needs to have good color, good composition, skillful technique at least.

"A painter should have to do better than hang something that looks as if he stretched and framed his rag for wiping his brushes, to command our respect . . . Artists never should be limited either to realism or to abstractionism. The museums and galleries should develop a more embracing taste — but taste needs to be developed, and not an insipid acceptance of anything, just so it is in line with the trend."

My love,
Patty

Betty Jane Guge and Ray McManaway Wed

Miss Betty Jane Guge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guge of Elgin, and Ray E. McManaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McManaway of Wheeling, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony February 16 in Grace Methodist church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace and net dress over taffeta fashioned ballerina length. Her waist-length veil was of silk net and she carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Nancy Wood was the bride's only attendant and wore a light blue taffeta dress and carried a cascade of pink carnations. Wilbur McManaway was the bridegroom's best man.

Following the 4:30 ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party at Floyd's lounge in Carpentersville.

The bride, employed in an Elgin electric company, is residing with her parents while her bridegroom is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Catherine Ritchie Is Now Mrs. Robert Glaser

(Stephany photo

With only the immediate families in attendance, Miss Catherine Ann Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ritchie Sr., 14 S. Elm st., Mt. Prospect, and Robert J. Glaser, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Glaser of Pontiac, Ill., were united in marriage in St. Raymond church, Mt. Prospect, March 9. Father Michael Hartnett officiated at the double ring service.

For her marriage the bride wore a blue crystalette ballerina gown with lace jacket. Her veil was shoulder length and held in place with a pearl seeded crown. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

The bride's sister, Ann Ritchie, was maid of honor and wore a pink nylon chiffon ballerina gown with pink seeded tiara. The bride's cousin, Barbara Marchini, was bridesmaid and wore a gown identical to the maid of honor's gown.

Kenneth Fredue and Frank Shifter, roommates of the bridegroom, attended Mr. Glaser.

Following the service, a reception for the couple was held in Meo's Franklin House in River Grove after which Mr. Glaser took his bride on a brief honeymoon to Starved Rock. Tuesday after their marriage, the couple reported back to their classes at Illinois State Normal university where Mr. Glaser is a junior and his bride a sophomore.

Men's Fashions May Swell Hospital Fund

by CHUCK BENNETT

The girls are really winding up for this one.

From the 25 cent kaffee klatsches that helped to spur the succeessful drive for the Northwest Community Hospital Center, the women of the Hospital Auxiliary aim to put $10,000 in the operating room kitty in one lump sum.

And they expect to do it at the expense of men's fashions.

Under chairmanship of Mrs. Ralph Adams, Mt. Prospect, the Women's auxiliary is sponsoring a men's fashion show May 17, at the Arlington high school gym.

Among the northwest area "lovelies" who will replace the traditional femme dolls who tread the fashion ramp are: Brad Blair, Alan Schroeder, Gordon Teach, Jack McGregor, Al Rancke, Ray Krewson, Bert Herrmann.

Bill Golden, John Clark, Dick Rubner, Warren Broadbent, Porter Gardner, Chuck Hamburg, Jim Viger, Dick Airey, Daryl Oldaker, Ed McEniely, George Traner, Bob Payne, Elmer Walters.

Stan Deming, Nicholas Lattof, Robert Hutchinson, Jack Keefer, Carl Sundberg Jr., and Carl Hammerl.

BUT, DESPITE all the male talent, the women and children will also walk the ramp on the arm or hand of some lucky male models. Included in this model category are: Joslyn and Linda Eaton, Elaine Busse, Anita Duchesneau, Tanya Blair, Jill and Maggie Schroeder, Betty Rancke, John Clark Jr., Timmy Gardner, Bill Oldaker, Robbie Payne, Dennis Walters, and Nancy Deming.

Assisting Mrs. Adams in planning and carrying out the plans for the program is her co-chairman, Mrs. Roscoe Batts. Chairmen of the committees working under them are Mrs. Herbert Herrmann, fashion coordinator; Mrs. W. Bradley Blair and Mrs. Elmer Walters, models; Mrs. Gordon Teach, program; Mrs. Chuck Bennett, publicity; Mrs. Charles Shaner, staging; Mrs. Edward McDowell, Mrs. Edward Glaeser, tickets; Mrs. John Landers and Mrs. Louis Langpop, prizes; and Mrs. Emmett Worley, hospitality.

THE "TOPS In Pops" men's fashion show will feature the "works" in male attire. Cooperating with the Women's auxiliary is the Illinois Men's club of Chicago.

Music for the show will be supplied by a group under the leadership of Robert Ragland, Mt. Prospect. Also featured during the show will be a number of Chicagoland TV and entertainment celebrities.

All proceeds from the style show will go towards fullfilling the Women's auxiliary's pledge of $25,000 to equip the operating room of the Northwest Community Hospital center.

Travel Advisor To Narrate Fashion Show

MARY GORDON

Mary Gordon, woman's travel advisor of Trans World airlines, will narrate the fashion show to be given May 8 by the woman's club of St. Raymond Catholic church, Mt. Prospect. The show will be held at 8 p.m. in Arlington high school. Fashions will be modeled by members of the club and will be shown by Strass' Ladies Apparel, Marietta James Fashions and McMahon's, all of Mt. Prospect.

Miss Gordon has a varied background including extensive travel in Europe and Asia. She speaks French and "kitchen Arabic" and often lectures to women giving travel talks, demonstrations on packing and hints on traveling with children. She is a native of New York and was associated with TWA in Jerusalem, Cairo, Beirut, Lebanon and Los Angeles before coming to Chicago.

Tickets for the show may be obtained from Mrs. Walter Bricker, Mrs. John Smedinghoff or any member of the club.

Resurrection Auxiliary To Meet

Resurrection hospital auxiliary will hold its regular monthly meeting in the hospital staff room, at 1 p.m., Friday, April 26. A program of "Talking Through My Hat" will be presented by Harriet B. Kuster.

Mrs. L. J. Hengesch, Chicago, has been chosen by the board to represent Resurrection in the Grant hospital benefit fashion show to be held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel May 3.

Quite Contrary

Play Ball Or Suffer Silently

by MARY

Every year I try to whip my enthusiasm to a fever pitch. This is kind of hard to do as by nature I am sort of lethargic. A more honest way of putting it would be that I am just plain lazy.

I feel I should get all whipped up about baseball. Everyone does, you know, and I love being in the swim so to speak. Religiously, I read what all the sport commentators have to say. Will the White Sox come through? Have the Cubs shuffled themselves around enough to get them out of the cellar?

TUNE IN NEXT September and we'll all find out. In the meantime, everyone feels free to be an expert, so why can't I. At least, I know where first base is. You know that old saying, "You can't get to first base?" Well, I can so.

It isn't that I am so mad for the great American sport. It is just that I like to talk to men. And in the summer, if you want to talk to men, you talk about baseball. If you don't talk about baseball, they won't let you talk. This last is too horrible to think about.

AS AN EXTRACURRICULAR activity, I also bone up pretty well on golf. This is so if the conversation suddenly takes a turn, I will still be able to keep up. Golf is easier as there aren't too many in the sport and, as far as I can find out, you are never too old for the game. An old golfer never dies. He just goes out and enters another tournament.

But, boy, those baseball clubs have depth. You can see at a glance how hep I am. Depth, strangely enough, is the number of boys warming the bench while the lucky ones are out on the field. Depth is how deeply they are stacked up waiting for a chance.

IF A CLUB has depth, they are all set. If they are shallow, tsk, tsk. Now that we have dealt with this phase of the game, I shall do some more study.

Maybe next week we will get into the really important part of the game. Why they wear white suits when they play in their home town and grey suits when they are visiting.

Sydney J. Harris To Discuss Children Here

Suburban parents will be told how to enjoy their children more in the first of a series of programs to be sponsored by the newly organized Northwest Parents' Forum.

The speaker will be Sydney J. Harris, newspaper columnist and critic who often writes about understanding children's development.

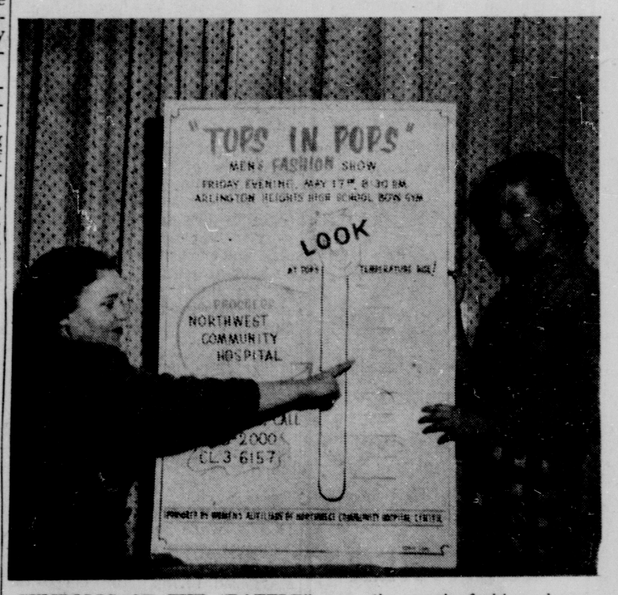
HE WILL SPEAK at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, May 16, in the Wilson school, Palatine road west of Arlington Heights road, Arlington Heights.

His talk on enjoying children will introduce a series with the general theme, "Handing Down Our Children's Heritage."

Richard P. Frisbie, of 1512 W. Oakton st., Arlington Heights, chairman of the Forum, said that future programs will deal with introducing children of various ages to such interests as art, books and music.

The forum is a fund-raising activity of the Wilson Community Kindergarten association of Arlington Heights.



SYMBOLIC OF THE "BATTLE" over the men's fashion show that's shaping up, Mrs. Roscoe Batts, Mount Prospect, and Deanna Ziebell, Arlington Heights, take firm grip on the "Tops In Pops" thermometer poster. The poster, supplied by Kamp's Signs for the battle of the suburbs, will be posted prominently in the suburb in the Northwest Community hospital center area in which auxiliary ticket sales for the fashion show May 17 are leading. Ticket selling teams in Mount Prospect are under the direction of Mrs. Carl Hammerl, and in Arlington Heights, the teams are under the direction of Mrs. Albert Peters. Making sure everyone has enough tickets to fill the thermometer on the poster are Mrs. John Landers, ticket chairman, Mrs. William DeHuzar and Mrs. Clifford Marks.

APPROPRIATELY CALLING their annual benefit luncheon-bridge and fashion show, "Cotton Carnival," members of the Southern Alliance met in the Pump room of the Ambassador East hotel to plan the affair to be held May 3 in the Michigan Shores club. On the committee, left to right, Mrs. Warren White Jr. of Arlington Heights and Mrs. Duncan Bolton of Crystal Lake.

Gamma Phi's Will Model Thursday at Telephone Bridge

BARBARA SIMPSON

When the Gamma Phi Beta Mothers association gives its benefit bridge luncheon Thursday, April 25, Barbara Simpson, 1911 E. Dundee rd., Arlington Heights, and others of the active chapter will model clothing from their own wardrobe. They will present around-the-clock fashions as worn by the typical college girl. Barbara is completing her junior year at Northwestern, being enrolled in the school of speech.

The party, to be held at the Northwestern chapter house, will be one of an inter-city series of telephone bridge parties to benefit the mother's work for the chapter house. Others will be held simultaneously in Milwaukee and Detroit arranged by mothers there.

Mrs. William E. Simpson, Barbara's mother, is president of the Mother's club of the Northwestern chapter.

Mrs. Collignon To Exhibit Plants in Annual Violet Sale

Mrs. Henry Collignon of Arlington Heights will be one of the exhibitors at the Roseonna African Violet club's annual plant sale and exhibit to be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 27, in Norwood Park Methodist church.

All plants in the exhibit will have been grown at home by club members and will be named varieties of interest to all plant collectors. The public is invited as well as other clubs.

Thetas To Hold Hospital Party

Northwest Suburban Alumnae club of Kappa Alpha Theta is giving its annual party for children of the Illinois Surgical Institute Friday, May 3. Mrs. Donald Richards of Inverness, Mrs. Stuart Paddock of Palatine, Mrs. Jack Hosford, Mrs. H. J. Gregg, Mrs. R. W. Daeschner and Mrs. John Lindstrom of Arlington Heights will represent the Thetas at the hospital party where they will serve ice cream and cake and play games with the children.

This year, Illinois Thetas celebrate the 15th anniversary of the Illinois state project for handicapped children. The project functions through a central council composed of representatives of alumnae groups, elected officers and committee chairmen who meet monthly in Chicago. In addition to its work in the surgical institute in the state project for handicapped children, the group also aids the Illinois Children's hospital and gives assistance to individual cases of handicapped children.

Thetas have given assistance to the Illinois Children's hospital school in Chicago since 1946. The group worked for the passage of the bill creating the school by state legislation and its growth has attracted nation-wide interest. Jacksonville pre-school blind institute has long been one of Theta's main interests with a clinic held each June for parents of pre-school age blind children.

Spring Supper Parties

Need a superb new dish for your Spring buffet supper parties? Here's a bright tasting chicken and cereal casserole as fresh and good as Spring itself. Creamed chicken and mushrooms are served on curry-seasoned junior-sized shredded wheat biscuits. The crunchy tenderness of the small cereal biscuit makes an interesting contrast with the delicate creamed chicken mixture.

Spring Casserole

½ cup butter or margarine
¾ teaspoon curry powder
2 cups junior-size shredded wheat biscuits
1 (3 oz.) can mushroom caps
2 cups chicken bouillon
¾ cup milk
6 tablespoons flour
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon salt
3 cups cooked chicken, cut in strips

Melt ¼ cup butter or margarine in a skillet. Add curry powder. Add the shredded wheat biscuits and stir until biscuits are well coated with curry butter. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, for 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Drain mushrooms; save liquid. Mix mushroom liquid, bouillon, and milk together. Melt remaining ¼ cup butter. Add flour and mix well. Gradually stir in the liquid and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is smooth and has thickened. Add mushrooms, nutmeg, salt, and chicken to sauce. Arrange curried shredded wheat biscuits in a shallow casserole dish. Spoon over the chicken mixture. Bake in a 350° F. oven for 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Illinois State Day for Theta Upsilon

Annual Illinois State day to be held April 27 in the Theta Upsilon chapter house in Champaign will be a reunion for many alumnae of the sorority.

Registration will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. along with social hour. The business meeting will follow.

Preceding the 12:30 luncheon. Mrs. Clay Tandy of Prospect Heights will show displays of the Navajo Indians and Berea college, the group's national philanthropies.

The senior induction ceremony and a program put on by the active members of the chapter will close the day's activities.

All Theta Upsilon alumni are invited. Further information may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Tandy at CLearbrook 5-4226.

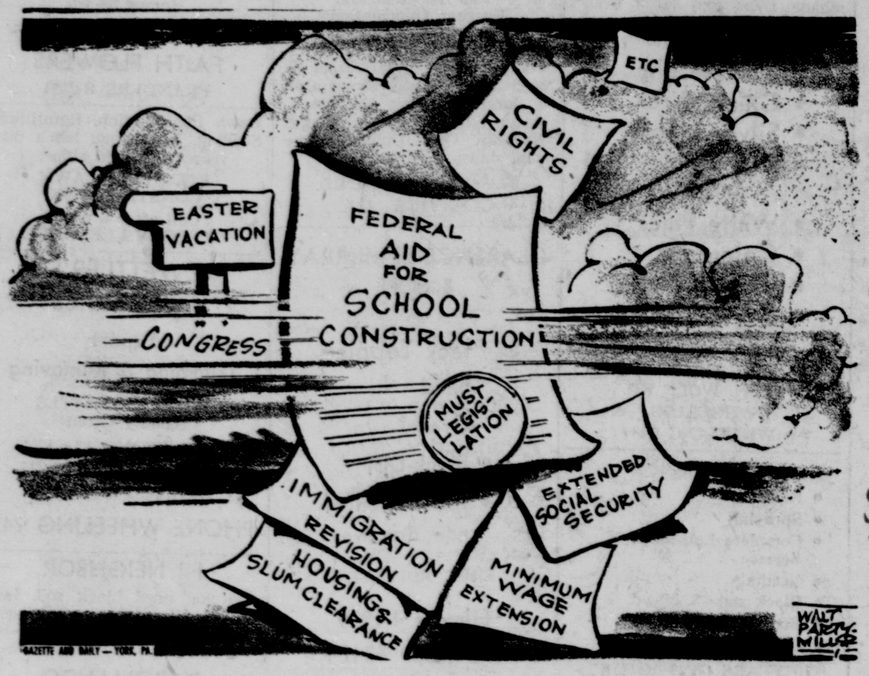
'Excuse My Dust'



Charges Of 'Tyranny' Face Civil Rights Bill

Is Integration That Important?

by STUART R. PADDOCK
Editor, Paddock Publications

Should the North force integration upon the South?

Can the colored people, if given an opportunity to prove their worthiness, be considered on a par with other citizens of the United States as they are in the Virgin Islands and Hawaii?

Together with other editors who recently visited the Virgin Islands, we enjoyed the company of Dr. Powell, Negro publisher of the Amsterdam News in New York City. He was accepted by the editors as a fellow journalist. He also attended the recent ceremony creating the new African nation of Ghana.

WE WERE a bit shocked when the Washington Star reported that he has been requested to return an invitation to dinner to be held in Richmond next month honoring important Virginians during the 350th anniversary celebration of the first English settlement in America. Powell was born in Virginia and his name appears in "Who's Who."

In the Virgin Islands, a Negro is accepted as the equal of any white person. On order of the Danish government years ago, the word "Negro" never appears in a newspaper story. They are treated as equals and their attitude is a lot different than that found among Chicago area whites.

While in Charlotte Amalie, we asked an Episcopal rector why Negroes in the Virgin Islands are so different than colored folk around Chicago.

HIS REPLY: "Our Negroes have had generations of living a normal life and being accepted as human beings. Failure of the people of the United States to provide such living conditions may explain the reason desegregation is being so troublesome."

On our way home from the Carribbean, we visited both Washington, D. C., and Richmond. The editorial opinions expressed in newspapers in both cities on civil rights bill now before Congress will be interesting to readers here.

There is less than 100 miles between the 2 cities -- yet there is great divergence of opinion on such an important subject.

It is within those miles that the southern and northern armies faced each other for 3 years of the Civil War. The residents — nearly a century after Lincoln freed the slaves — still do not agree on the status of the Negro.

THE RICHMOND, Va., News Leader called the pending civil rights bill a "Weapon for Tyranny."

The editorial declared in part: "Parts III and IV of the bill which applies to voting rights only, form the most vicious legislative weapon ever devised for the support of judicial tyranny. In place of government by law, in which state powers are preserved and individual rights are jealously protected, these provisions would substitute government by injunction — government by the uncheckable whim of Federal judges...those of us in the South have suffered most grievously from the Supreme Court's rape of the Constitution.

"The effect of one section of the bill would place the powers of a tyrant into the hands of every Federal judge;...in fighting this sinister bill, Southerners are not speaking for their own region alone; they are struggling to defend the whole fabric of Union from forces that would destroy it."

THE WASHINGTON Post editorial defended the bill, but said "By no means are all fears of Federal intervention groundless of jaundice; and the views of persons who are sincerely apprehensive of this extension of Federal authority are entitled to thoughtful consideration. The significance of the proposed amendment is that it would permit the Attorney General to intervene in the name of the United States to protect voting rights — in other words, to carry out the 14th and 15th amendments.

"News reports last week predict that Congress will sidestep the issue and the civil rights bill not be passed this session."

An editorial in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post under the heading, "Integration isn't an earth-shaking problem with our youth," read in part:

"Different sections of the country have different circumstances, traditions, and points of view, but if grownups would just leave the kids alone, there would be an amazing amount of easy, unforced, 'natural integration' from Maine to Mississippi and points West."

Springfield Sidelights

Blotches On Stratton's Big Budget

by REP. PAUL SIMON

According to the Governor's message on the budget, we're going to have a balanced budget with no tax increase — and that would sound good if that were the whole story.

The truth is there are 3 big dark spots on that bright picture.

1) PER PUPIL state aid to schools is going to be reduced. While the amount allowed our schools was increased in the budget, this increase does not match the mounting school population. The result in some cases will be increased local property taxes: in some cases there will be no change at all; and in some cases there will be a lower standard of education.

2) The Public Aid proposal is made with "tongue in cheek" since almost everyone admits privately that the proposal cannot cover the 2-year period. At the beginning of the next session there probably will be an appeal for between 30 and 50 million dollars additional — and then we'll have to figure out how to get it.

3) Here's the big "sleeper" in the plans: a $238 million bond issue to finance expansion of our state colleges and universities and our welfare institutions.

THE NEED for additional facilities is clear. But why we should not finance this on a "pay-as-you-go" basis is a mystery.

A local school district must float bonds to meet building needs because it lacks the broad foundation which would make possible a "pay-as-you-go" plan. But in the state there is no such excuse.

Not meeting your needs with current income means increasing the state debt; it means postponing all of this construction until at least after the general election of 1958 (if it's approved then); and it means throwing millions of dollars away on interest that could be used to meet these needs.

RIGHT NOW, for example, the state and its agencies are throwing away on interest just a little less than $50 million a biennium (the 2-year period on which the state operates).

This bond issue proposal means spending an additional $9 million in interest each year.

If this proposal passes the legislature and is approved in the 1958 election, it probably will take another 3 to 4 years to take care of the construction involved.

If instead of following such a course, we would decide to meet our needs head-on over a 6-year period, it would mean raising a little less than $40 million a year in additional revenue.

I DON'T want to get involved in a complicated discussion of revenue problems in this column, but raising an additional $40 million a year can be done without a great deal of difficulty and without an increase in the sales tax.

Principally, it would involve 3 things: 1) Sensible economies in some of our state government operation; 2) A wiser investment of state funds now on hand so as to increase the amount of interest they produce; 3) A slight increase in some of our luxury taxes and coverage of the sale of some products not now covered by our sales tax.

Instead of increasing our debt as the Governor proposes, the head-on meeting of the problem would mean that in future years there would be more money available to meet the even greater demands at these same institutions.

If we fail to meet our problems in a sound way, it can mean only one thing: In the years to come there will be more and more bond issues and more and more money senselessly wasted on interest.

Future Of Suburban Schools

As we have pointed out in the past, discussing the muddle in suburban school financing, Cook county suburban areas paved their way to trouble years ago by adopting a dual stem of school district organization.

They established districts for grade schools and separate districts for high schools.

They did this because the state constitution permits each district to issue bonds up to 5 per cent of assessed property valuations. The dual district system doubled their bonding power.

The plan has backfired now because of fresh population pouring into the suburbs. They need more schoolrooms and many of the school districts have exhausted their bonding power providing them. Only those districts that have gained, along with their new people, new industries to pay substantial taxes, are able to pay their way.

To meet this situation temporarily, some legislators are advocating a scheme under which the state would build school houses and the districts would rent them.

The long-range answer to the dilemma is something else again. Many members of the legislative School Problems commission and educators, too, believe the only sound solution in the end will be the creation of an authority similar to the Sanitary District. This authority would cover only the suburban area, exclusive of Chicago. It would have the power to levy a tax on the whole area for school purposes. Tax money would be distributed on an equitable basis. Local boards of education would retain their present autonomy.

That would work if the people can be persuaded to accept the new authority. A good many powerful influences will work against it.

In any case, the Legislature should undertake at this session to find some practical way to finance the suburban schools adequately in the future as well as now. The suburbs will continue to grow for many years. They must be able to educate their children.

DO THE PEOPLE of Palatine and vicinity realize that this country is at war?

Do they realize what it is going to mean to each and everyone here in this town, thousands of miles away from the battlefields?

Whether or not a single Palatine lad enlists, Palatine is going to feel the war.

Our people should not act like the ostrich and think by blinding their eyes that they are safe.

There is no danger of a German army bombarding our fair town, but there is danger of OUR PEOPLE GOING HUNGRY!

Are Palatine people going to sit back and let the "other fellow" do the work?

It will be a question as to whether there will be any bread and potatoes to buy.

Whether you have sufficient "nerve" to show the American flag at your home or not, you ought to have gumption enough to do your share to keep from starving.

No matter whether your sympathies are with Great Britain or not, for your own salvation you must either join the army in the field that is fighting against Germany, or else you must join the army at home who is providing the food for the world.

What are you going to do about it?

Every Bit As Good

I wanted to write and tell you how much I am enjoying your new feature page format. I particularly enjoy reading the "Way Back When" and the weekly column by Paul Simon on Springfield doings. They are both always so interesting and every bit as good as anything I find in the Chicago papers.

Campaign Help

On behalf of the Good Government party candidates who were elected to village offices last week, I would like to thank all those who helped in our campaign. We pledge to do our utmost to discharge the duties of our offices faithfully and well.

It was gratifying to work with the fine Citizens' Committee for Good Government, and we sincerely appreciate their work on our behalf. And the support and enthusiasm of the hundreds of other citizens who put their trust in us, was a real inspiration.

ESPECIALLY, though, we want to thank the voters of Palatine who turned out so well on election day to exercise their privilege of thus participating in the affairs of the village — regardless of which way they voted. It is such community spirit and interest which insures the greatness of Palatine's vote.

As always, the public is welcome at all meetings of the village board. Regular meetings are held in the village hall at 8 p.m. each second and fourth Monday.

Thanks again from all of us.

Peculiar Setup

A very peculiar situation is now existing in the Bloomingdale school district. In the election of April 13, an incumbent was defeated because the voters no longer wished to have him associated with the board. After definitely expressing their opinion, their wishes have been disregarded. Because the ex-member was so put out by his defeat, a couple of the present board members had the idea of hiring him to fill his previous job. Now — was this little by-play necessary? From what has happened in the past, we're going to have an 8-man board and not the elected 7-man board.

For The Record

Just for the record, we received no response from our want ad. The same situation seems to exist in all the N, NW and W suburbs.

We ran 8 different ads at a cost of more than $25 and received one reply. Your ad was the only one that came near mentioning what we'd pay. I think someone should start a campaign directed at the owners of all the big old homes in the area. Two and 3 people can't possibly make use of the 12-15 rooms the houses have. I know a dozen couples who would shriek with joy over just 4 or 5 of the many rooms — and decorate themselves.

In The Shadow Of The Steeple

Local Politics' Taint Of Disrepute

by REV. WILLIAM McGILL

Several of our communities have just completed interesting and exciting election campaigns. The results are in, and the selected ones are making preparations to assume their responsibilities.

Whatever special insights I might have are not at work here because this is written a week or more before the elections.

IN MT. PROSPECT and Wheeling, there were 4 tickets in the field. There was talk of a "hot" race in Rolling Meadows, and excitement was stirring in Long Grove and Palatine. Who, if he lived here in 1953, can forget the Arlington Heights election in that year?

These are cited because one of the situations which is receiving a great deal of attention these days is the diminution of civic consciousness in urban centers.

It is suggested that lack of interest in local affairs is related to the depersonalizing process which takes place in large gatherings of people.

IN THESE circumstances, it seems to have become difficult to enlist people of ability and integrity for political leadership. Political activity, instead of carrying distinction and respect, has assumed a taint of disrepute. This is not a desirable state of affairs. Our country has been built on the principle of dependency on public-spirited citizens.

We expect that in addition to elected officials there will be a large body of interested citizens participating in a wide range of civic activity — in organizations for good government, in school associations, in programs for health and crime prevention.

Without them, the whole process of American culture and social life fails to fulfill its ends.

THIS LEADS to 2 tentative conclusions. One, is that the suburban communities, at the moment, are fortunate. In most cases, they are not such large communities that depersonalization is advanced. A man, whatever he does for a living, may still be known and respected for his own basic worth. A number of men and women continue to assume duties and obligations to the total community, and it is a good thing for all of us that they do.

A second tentative conclusion: there perhaps needs to be some recognition of this social process in the talk about adding strength to county government.

As the instrumentalities of authority are removed from local situations, there may well be a greater efficiency in some areas. There may well be a lessening of personal sharing in the work of government, and in civic activity in general, if the source of authority is further removed than a village hall.

The individual sharing in community and civic life is one of our most important citizens. We dare not allow this part of Americana to fade away into the complexities of modern living.

BUSINESS CAREER OPENING FOR YOUNG MAN IN ELGIN

This is not just a job we're offering—it is a genuine chance at a real career in one of the most dynamic, yet stable industries in the country. We're looking for a young man, 18 to 25 years old, with a good high school background, who wants the opportunity to go far with a good company.

In the beginning job you will represent the company in dealings with our customers. It is interesting and challenging work. You will be thoroughly trained, not only in your immediate job but in the whole business. If you have the ability, we will want to promote you as quickly as possible.

The starting salary is excellent. It is a 40-hour (no Saturday) week, with frequent raises and paid vacations. And again — the opportunity for advancement to higher supervisory positions is excellent.

If you are clean-cut, intelligent and ambitious, we want to talk with you. A career is waiting . . . Please call today for an interview appointment.

In Appreciation

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of William F. Roder who passed away 2 years ago April 26.
Loving memories never die
As years roll on and days pass by,
In my heart a memory is kept
Of one I loved and will never forget.
Softly the stars are shining on a precious grave
Beneath lies one I dearly loved, but whom I couldn't save
Friends may think I have forgotten
When at times they see me smile,
Little do they know the heart-ache
That my smiles hide all the while.
Loving wife Minnie. (*

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Stereophonic music reproduction is all the rage on the West Coast, and within a single short year electronic developments have made it possible for everyone to enjoy its delights.

Briefly, stereo consists of a tape recorder with 2 sets of heads, and 2 speaker-amplifier units; part of the music on tape is directed from one playback head into a speaker, the other part coming from the other speaker.

Placing these speakers about 5 feet apart gives the illusion of being at Orchestra Hall, for the music actually "shifts" from direction to direction just as it does on the stage.

DACTRON Corporation of Minneapolis has put us all in its debt by making available a "Stereadapter" (priced at about $40) which consists of an extra head and a transistor preamplifier.

This is connected by screw bracket to the side of any modern tape recorder, the tape passed easily against the extra head and on through the recorder's standard threading guides—a plug-cord connection is made to a separate external speaker, and you have stereo.

HIFI Records of Hollywood have just released a 7-inch reel of "The George Wright Sound" in stereo, and it is absolutely incredible as to dazzling, spatial sound.

Listen to "The Whistler and His Dog" and "Dizzy Fingers" on a Wurlitzer pipe organ that has every possible orchestral instrumental sound, from marimba to xylophone and tambourines!

WE CHEER Epic Records under Bill Nielsen's brilliant guidance for continuing some of the most interesting programming to be found on lp. There's a 3-disc album of Smetana's gay, rollicking comic opera masterpiece, "The Bartered Bride," by the famous Slovenian National Opera Company under Dimitri Gebre.
